

BURGLAR TRIES TO IMITATE HOUDINI; HE LANDS IN JAIL

Locked in Trunk He Becomes Exhausted and Is Unable to Ply His Trade

BERLIN, June 23.—"Spectacular methods in burglary are all right for the movies, but after this I am going to stick to the safe and sane old-fashioned second-story man rules," said Max Arndt, after his attempt to rob an express car by an amateur Houdini trunk act landed him in jail.

Max and Paul Arndt, burglars, conceived the idea of Max permitting himself to be locked into a good-sized wardrobe trunk, accompanied by a full set of burglar's tools. Brother Paul then shipped Max from the Berlin railroad station to Spandan. It was agreed that during the trip Max was to open the trunk, step out and rob the other trunks in the express car.

"It might have worked smoothly, except that the Arndts brothers forgot to take the precaution of boring a couple of holes in the trunk for air. Before Max could liberate himself he had exhausted the air in the trunk and fainting and Railroad officials became suspicious because of the weight of the baggage and forced it open. When Max had been resuscitated he stepped out smiling and bowed, with the announcement that he was a vaudeville artist, trying out a new Houdini trick.

He might have gotten away with the sleight-of-hand alibi, but his black magic didn't include a chapter on hiding burglars' kits up his sleeve, and he was told to tell it to the judge. Max did. So did Paul. The judge told them that they might continue their legions, with a year's course in the penitentiary.

President Asks Power to Refund Allied War Debts

curities was given by Secretary Mellon. Senator Penrose said he presumed they would be offered to American bankers and the public at times and in quantities without disturbance of finance.

The Administration bill was received by most Republican leaders with approval. Some Democrats, however, declared they would oppose any grant of unlimited power on the allied debts to the Secretary of the Treasury, and intimations of a similar position were given by some Republicans.

During a speech Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, referred to the foreign debt and asked if any member of the Senate Finance Committee expected to see a dollar of interest on our foreign debt in 1922.

FINANCIAL INFLUENCE

"Why, in the financial quarters which influence the foreign policy of the United States," he said, "the proposal is now being discussed to postpone even the paying of interest on this foreign debt for ten years. France, Belgium, England, have their own burdens. The suggestion that interest be postponed for ten years arises from the quarters where it is hoped they can be kept solvent enough to pay the interest on the private debts they owe in the United States."

Secretary Mellon prefaced a letter to the President with a table summarizing the war debt of the foreign governments to the United States, as follows:

Obligations for advances made under the Liberty Loan bond acts, $5,435,225,229.24; obligations received from the American relief administration, $34,092,963.56; obligations received from the Secretary of War and from the Secretary of the Navy on account of the sale of the proceeds of Liberty bonds are all demand or overdue obligations, while the other classes referred to mature at various dates, beginning June 30, 1921, and extending to August 1, 1929. The obligations mentioned as held by the United States Grain Corporation were received by that corporation from foreign governments on account of the sale of flour under the act of March 30, 1920.

Details of the amounts loaned follow:

Advances under the Liberty loan included:

Great Britain	$4,166,318,858

OVERDUE OBLIGATIONS

"From this statement," said the letter, "it will be seen that the obligations in respect to loans from the proceeds of Liberty bonds are all demand or overdue obligations, while the other classes referred to mature at various dates, beginning June 30, 1921, and extending to August 1, 1929. The obligations mentioned as held by the United States Grain Corporation were received by that corporation from foreign governments on account of the sale of flour under the act of March 30, 1920."

$300,000 SWINDLE CHARGED TO MAN ARRESTED IN L. A.

Stock Manipulations in Kentucky Corporation Laid to W. R. L. Johnson.

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—Accused of obtaining $300,000 under false pretenses through alleged stock manipulations at Taylorville, Ky., where he financed and managed the organization of a large corporation, W. R. L. Johnson, 55, a wealthy retired business man, was arrested here today as a result of a raid on his fashionable home, in the presence of his wife and daughter, who were said to be socially prominent in this city and in Kentucky.

Kentucky officers arrived here armed with a certified copy of an indictment, accusing Johnson and others of an alleged swindle, involving a half million dollars in stock, in which was described as the Viable Gasoline Dispensing Company.

Johnson declared he was innocent of the charges. He said he would consult his attorney before agreeing to return to Taylorville without being extradited.

Mrs. Esmond Hearing Is Fixed for Monday

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Mrs. Leone Esmond, who was arrested charged with violating the criminal syndicalism law early this week, appeared today before Police Judge Daniel O'Brien. She was taken into custody in connection with alleged threatening letters sent to former Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen of Oakland, former U. S. Attorney Antonio Adams, Mayor Ralph and others. Attorney William S. Heron told the court that as there was no complaint on file the case should be dismissed at once. The prosecution claimed that as the defendant was on nominal bail, no real harm would result from two weeks continuance. Judge O'Brien ordered a postponement until Monday only.

Chicagoan Aged 81, Marries Bride of 83

CHICAGO, June 23.—"I'm getting married again because I'm lonely," said Samuel H. Merritt, 81, civil war veteran, after he had obtained a license to wed Mrs. Louise V. J. Vaughan, 83.

PICKPOCKET IS BLAMED.

That there was no mistake in the manner of the loss of his pocketbook containing $250 in jewels and cash, but that a pickpocket at the municipal auditorium was responsible, is the statement today of William B. Collingwood, 3014 Woodruff avenue. As first reported the loss appeared to have been occasioned when Mrs. Collingwood sought to hand the purse to her husband in a crowded street car. Collingwood says that he had the pocketbook when he was in the auditorium, and that his pocket was picked before he entered the street car.

hearing of the adverse foreign exchange rates existing at the time against these debtor countries and which may make it desirable to defer payment of interest.

"It is, I think, clear that by reason of the lack of any authority as to a part of the foreign obligations and the restrictions upon the existing authority as to the others, it is impossible in any refunding, under the various conditions that exist, to deal fairly with the debtor countries and protect the interests of this country. To do this it is essential that the department have full authority as to all such foreign indebtedness to determine the form and terms of the settlements, and of the refunding obligations, the rate or rates of interest, the maturity dates, and the right to extend the time for the payment of interest on the indebtedness to be refunded.

"It is also of importance that the department should have adequate authority to adjust and settle claims against foreign governments, which are not in the form of bonds or obligations, as for example the claim for costs of our military forces of occupation."

WAR HERO HELD FOR MAIL FRAUD FREED BY COURT

Long - Standing Indictment Against Major Jeffrey Is Dismissed in S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Major John B. Jeffrey, who, with three others, was arrested more than two years ago for the alleged using of the mails to defraud, will not have to stand trial again. Federal Judge Pooling dismissed the indictment in his case today on the showing of the government that it did not intend to prosecute him.

The Major with a distinguished service record, together with Mason L. Williams, John H. Suits and Alyce F. Noble, alias Alyce P. Rogers, were all taken into custody by federal operatives. Suits pleaded guilty and a jury trying the other three defendants, some time ago, disagreed.

The very latest in patterns appears on The TRIBUNE magazine page daily.

Cemetery Came Near Being Right Place For Smash

OAKDALE, June 24.—"I was nearly here to stay," remarked L. R. Kasten, Modesto Man, as his car halted in the middle of the Odd Fellows' cemetery, on the outskirts of Oakdale, after crashing through the fence, tearing out a row of signboards by the roadside and bringing up facing a large headstone.

He escaped with a few scratches. Two women in the car were unhurt. The car was badly damaged. Kasten failed to notice the sharp turn in the road and kept right on into the cemetery.

Girl Held for Court On Bad Check Charge

Pauline Ayres, 17-year-old graduate of the Oakland Technical High School, who was arrested under the name of Helen Walker on June 10, on a charge of passing fictitious checks, was certified this morning to the juvenile court, by Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell.

The girl appeared in court accompanied by her stepfather, J. J. Thea, a San Francisco exporter, and her mother. Both of the parents testified that the girl would be eighteen years old on September 21 of this year.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH SPEEDING 50 MILES HOUR

Amelia Quijada and Her Auto Again in Trouble With Police.

BERKELEY, June 24.—Charged with going 50 miles an hour in her automobile on Shattuck avenue, Miss Amelia Quijada, 1740 Cedar street, was booked last night at the police station by Sergeant Oscar Fritzer.

Miss Quijada was driving a car registered in the name of Ramon Negri, Mexican consul general in San Francisco. The car was the same one which she was driving last year when she ran down and killed H. W. Allen, Civil War veteran. She was later exonerated of all blame for the accident.

Recently Miss Quijada figured in another accident in which she had the driver of the second car arrested for violating traffic laws. The driver was later released from custody when it was shown that he was traveling on the wrong side of the street to avoid hitting a pedestrian.

WORLD SOON TO BE RULED BY SPIRITS, CONVENTION TOLD

Crime, War and Poverty Near End and Millenium Is Declared At Hand.

By HAROLD D. JACOBS, United Press Staff Correspondent. NEW YORK, June 24.—Through the medium of spiritualists control the world will soon be ruled by the greatest minds of all times, dating back to the beginning of history, according to Frederick W. Constantine of Buffalo, N. Y.

Constantine is secretary of the General Assembly of Spiritualists of the State of New York, which opened its annual convention here today.

Such rapid progress has been made during the last year in spiritualistic communication that it is only a matter of comparatively a short time when practically the entire population of the earth will be mediumistic, Constantine declared in an interview.

These will come to pass. As a result, he said, the world will have the benefit of consulting such men as Abraham Lincoln, George Washington, Napoleon Bonaparte, Julius Caesar, Solomon, Robert Ingersoll and Theodore Roosevelt.

When this comes to pass, according to Constantine, there will be: No wars. No more crimes. No more poverty and we will have reached a stage comparable to the millenium.

Of course, such great men as I have named are in constant communication with mortals, but only to a limited extent at this time," Constantine said.

"Lincoln is perhaps in touch with more mediums than any other great man."

GREAT PROGRESS CLAIMED.

"Spiritualism has made great strides. Little more than a century ago we would have been burned at the stake. The world gave the movement great impetus through the desire of hundreds of thousands to communicate with those they loved. In the last year our membership has doubled.

"The world's moral population amounts to a few millions. Its spiritual population is thousands of millions. This overwhelming spiritual pressure from the 'other side' will eventually have its effect.

"In time our kings, our parliament and congresses, our business and commercial organizations will be completely dominated by the great minds which have gone before."

Home Wedding Distasteful to Young Couple; They Elope

MRS. COLUMBUS THEODORE CRENNNA, whose elopement to Redwood City was a surprise to her friends—Boye portrait.

Marjorie Holman and C. T. Crenna Surprise Their Friends When They Are Married at Redwood City

Friends of Miss Marjorie Holman and Columbus Theodore Crenna who received invitations to their marriage, which was set for June 28, were given a surprise with their elopement June 22 to Redwood City, where the ceremony was performed. Preferring to avoid the usual festivities attendant upon a large home wedding, the couple slipped quietly away to San Mateo county Wednesday.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Holman of 1001 Belle Vista avenue. She is a great granddaughter of E. W. Burr, pioneer of San Francisco and at one time mayor of that city, and of Dr. F. A. Holman.

Crenna is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crenna of Contra Costa county and is a graduate of State Pharmaceutical College. He served three years overseas and attended the University of Baunne in France.

San Francisco will be the future home of the couple.

COUNTY TAX RATE TO BE ABOUT $3 FOR COMING YEAR

Increase From Present Figure of $2.76 Due to Expenses Approved At Polls.

The county tax rate for owners of property in Oakland probably will be nearly $3 for each $100 of assessed valuation for the coming year, unless something the supervisors do not now foresee happens to decrease the necessity for expenditure, according to rough estimates today.

The present rate is $2.76.

At the end of this increase is due. It is stated, to expenditures voted for by the people and which the supervisors must provide for in the budget regardless of their own desires.

Because of a difference in expenditures for school purposes and other items in various districts of the county, the rate will vary from this in other cities and localities.

LOWEST FIGURE IS $2.95.

W. Hamilton, chairman of the board, and Supervisor John F. Mullins, who already have made a cursory investigation in reference to the next year's budget, estimate that from present indications the new rate will be in the vicinity of $2.95. Absence of definite estimates from the different departments and from State officials regarding funds in which State and county share the burden make this subject to revision, but the estimate has been made as conservatively as possible.

County Auditor E. F. Garrison is awaiting reports from the majority of department heads, who are expected to have their estimates in his hands by the first Tuesday in July, and also will receive statements from State Superintendent of Schools Will C. Wood and from the State Board of Control as to school and indigent funds in which the county and State jointly provide funds.

CAUSES FOR INCREASE.

The consolidation election is expected to cost not less than from $25,000 to $50,000 and possibly as much as $175,000. With a somewhat increased assessed valuation of property this year it is figured that such $27,500 of money to be raised by taxes will present one cent in the tax rate. Thus the consolidation election, if its cost is conservatively estimated at $125,000, will represent about 5 cents in the tax rate.

The increased salaries voted by the legislature to county employees total $82,000 or about 3 cents.

Officially agreed that it probably will call for not less than 5 cents in the tax rate.

HOSPITAL FUNDS.

Last year nothing was appropriated for construction work on the Highland Hospital in East Oakland, although $500,000 was expended which had been appropriated the year before and used. This year the supervisors have promised to appropriate $300,000, as has been done every year since the work was started. This will represent about 11 cents in the tax rate, but this amount, it is expected, can be cut to about five and one-half cents by savings on the cost of operating San Leandro and Arroyo hospitals the coming year.

Interest and redemption for the $1,000,000 of Oakland school bonds issued a few days ago will cost $100,000, or three and one-half cents in the rate.

A law passed by the last legislature requires to provide funds, in co-operation with the state, for certain indigents in addition to those now cared for through money appropriated to aid the Associated Charities. Nothing definite can be predicted on this requirement, but officials believe it will demand at least four cents in the rate.

These figures do not take into calculation any expenditure for interest

EIGHT END LIVES IN BAY DISTRICT WITHIN 48 HOURS

Three Persons Attempt Suicide by Swallowing Poison, But Fail.

Eight persons in the bay district have committed suicide within the past 48 hours and three others have made unsuccessful attempts to end their lives. Of the eight suicides three of them were accomplished by inhaling gas, while the fourth hung himself. Three others used a revolver and the eighth took poison.

Those who committed suicide were:

C. E. Channing, special agent of the United States treasury department in Seattle, 65 years old, who fired a bullet into his brain at his room in the Hotel Oakland yesterday.

George Stoor, 52 years old, 626 Forty-fourth street, shot himself through the temple last night.

Frank Thorne, 212 Geary street, San Pablo avenue, shot himself through the head yesterday morning.

Gustaf Gustafson, 50 years old, 537 First avenue, San Leandro, ended his life last night by inhaling gas.

Alexander Hutchinson, patient at the Alameda county hospital, took poison Wednesday.

Charles Walkenhorst, patient at the Alameda county hospital, hung himself Wednesday.

Prank Thorne, 212 Geary street, San Francisco, died Wednesday at his home.

Mrs. William Berreo, 3178 Mission street, San Francisco, died Wednesday as a result of inhaling gas.

Those who were unsuccessful in attempts to end their lives were:

Miss Robbie Allen, 1871 Bush street, who took poison.

Mrs. Ethel Verbrugge, 1295 Eighth avenue, poison.

Mrs. Ethel Gergandene, 2456 Sixteenth avenue, poison.

SON OF CLERGYMAN.

Channing, who ended his life at his room in the Hotel Oakland yesterday, was a son of William Channing, noted American clergyman and a brother of Edward Channing, professor at Harvard University and author of Channing's "History of the United States." He had been in the service of the treasury department for 20 years and was located at Seattle. He was here with his son, John Channing, 212 Mason street, San Francisco, who was in the next room when the elder Channing fired two shots, one of which grazed his temple, the other entering the body just below the heart. The son and hotel attaches rushed to the room and found it bolted. As they were forcing their way in Channing fired another shot into his brain. He left a note saying that he was suffering from an incurable insanity and preferred death to an insane asylum.

ILL HEALTH CAUSE.

George Stoor, feeble and alone in the world, ended his life some time during the night. The body was found on the rear porch of the home of Mrs. Emma Machman at 626 Forty-fourth street, where Stoor resided. Stoor had but one relative, Mrs. C. L. Barham, 3549 Adeline street, Emeryville, wife of the president of the Bank of Emeryville.

Carl, who was 40 years old, was found lying in his bed dead with a revolver clutched in his hand. No motive for the shooting has been established by the police.

Channing, who was 60 years old, ended his life last evening by inhaling gas. He was found in a bedroom of his home by his wife, Constantine. Despondency over ill health was given as the cause.

on bonds for an estuary bridge, for which the people voted bonds of $800,000 in 1917, the construction having been delayed by the war.

OIL DRILL WORKER BADLY BURNED IN PIEDMONT BLAST

Standard Oil Employee May Lose Sight of Right Eye Due to Injuries.

Rudolph Weber, drill man for the Standard Oil Company, was seriously burned on the face and may lose the sight of his right eye as the result of an explosion this morning on the site of a new oil station in Piedmont.

Weber, with several other workmen, had been working on an excavation for subterranean tanks at the station site, which is at Piedmont park and Highland avenue. At a depth of five feet he placed a charge in the rock and was standing directly above it, bending over it. The fuse burned rapidly and exploded the charge prematurely.

Weber was taken to the Emergency hospital where Dr. C. D. Hamilton and Chief Steward Frank Davidson attended him, after which he was turned over to a Standard Oil Company physician. He resides at 290 Ninth street and is married.

JAPANESE RACE INCREASES MOST RAPIDLY OF ALL

California Absorbed 30,000 of Growth of 38,000, According to Census.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The racial composition of the population of the United States in 1920, as announced by the Census Bureau, shows 34,827,431 white persons, 10,121,225 Japanese, 61,686 Chinese and 685 others. The Japanese race exceeded the rate of growth in the last years of all other classes.

The official estimate of the increase in Japanese in the United States, particularly on the Pacific Coast, were borne out in the official tabulation. The census shows that the Japanese race increased by 33.9 per cent. California absorbed 30,536 of the growth of 8,668 Japanese. On January 1, 1920, there were 71,952 Japanese in California. The remainder of the increase was distributed largely in Washington State, where there are 7,388; Oregon, 4,151; and Utah, 1,000 and 3,000 each.

The white population showed only 1.6 per cent expansion and the negro 6.5 per cent. Both the Indian and Chinese races showed a decline of 1.8 per cent and 13.8 per cent respectively. The growth in the white population was considerably less than the rate of the previous decade, the statement said, was due principally to the reduction in immigration during the war.

MID-WEST GROWS.

The greatest numerical increase in the white population was shown in the district embracing Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin. The rate of increase in the negro population was the lowest on record according to the statement. Evidence of the migration of the negro to the North and West was found in the figures showing nearly three-fourths of the increase in the negro population, or 472,413 of the 525,000 in these sections. A growth of only 162,332, or about one-fourth, was reported for the South, despite the fact that 85 per cent of the total negro race is still here.

INDIAN RACE DROPS.

Decrease in the Indian race in the last ten years was probably due in part to the census taker's error, as Indians in 1910 and as whites in 1920, of persons having only slight traces of Indian blood.

Of the total decrease in the Indian race—22,724—by far the greatest part, 15,876, was in Oklahoma. The only pronounced increase was reported for North Carolina—from 12,124 to 12,241. Other increases occurred were Louisiana, Texas, Montana, Arizona and California.

Italians Lead in Foreign Population

Analysis of census figures on the foreign population of Oakland, as given out in Washington, revealed today that the Irish and German-born are on the decrease. There are 4,115 less German-born Oaklanders than in 1910 and 504 less Irish-born.

The German-born also have lost the lead to the Italians. In 1910 German-born residents of Oakland totaled 5476 and headed the list, but in 1920 the Italians took the lead with 5094.

The comparative figures for 1910 and 1920, as compiled by the statisticians of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, are:

Nationality	1910	1920	Inc.
Italian	5094	5094	129
German	5476	4661	-815
English	3707	4532	825
Portuguese	3387	4281	894
Italian	2785	2785	0
Irish	4100	2668	-1432

Decrease. On the basis of these figures the foreign-born population of the city showed an increase in the 1910-20 decade of 10 per cent, as compared with an increase in the whole population of 44 per cent.

Auto Mechanics to Hold Yearly Outing

The annual outing and dance of the Eastbay auto mechanics will be held Saturday night and Sunday at Idora Park. Practically all of the mechanics in the Eastbay region will attend. Strawberry Crops Aided by Hot Wave

TRACY, June 24.—The terrific hot wave which swept the valley has been broken. During the peak of the torrid period the thermometer registered 116 in the shade here. No damage is reported. On the contrary, strawberries have been greatly benefited, irrigation and heat combining to ripen the crop and sweeten the berries.

JAPANESE ARRESTED.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 24.—Captain Yano of the Japanese tramp steamer Portland Maru, now here, was arrested today charged with permitting six Japanese members of his crew to escape to the city. Five of the men were recaptured and were being held in jail.

Yano, who is the South Sea, was in the Oakland TRIBUNE's best photo.

38,000 Japanese Evaded U. S. Census, Is Charge

SACRAMENTO, June 24.—The Japanese population of California was declared today to be 38,000 in excess of the federal census figures by L. E. Ross, director of the bureau of vital statistics of the state board of health. Ross' estimate would bring the Japanese population up to 108,966. The director based his declaration on records of births and deaths among the Japanese of the state since 1910 on file in his office. His figures concerning the Indian and negro population are practically the same as those announced by the federal census.

The Japanese figures were compiled by Ross several months ago, but have been held in abeyance awaiting proof of their accuracy. This proof came in the federal census, the government figures checking with Ross' figures with relation to every race but the Japanese, proving the reliability of his test.

Ross said: "The Japanese who gained surreptitious entry to this state naturally desired to evade the census enumerators as they would have been unable to give any authority for being here."

"Proof of the fact that they succeeded in evading the federal enumerators is self-evident. The state goes, in almost every case, federal agents have admitted that the Japanese were entering this country unlawfully by the thousands."

"To start my inquiry into the number of Japanese here I secured the population of California by races in 1910 according to the federal census. I next found the death rate of each race in this state by referring to state records for a number of years back. The next step was a comparison of this death rate with the 1920 deaths to establish the increase in deaths."

"Taking the 1910 census figures in connection with the movement of mortality by race from 1905 to 1919 inclusive, and making the necessary calculations to allow for the fluctuations in deaths, I found that California's population by percentage at the end of the year 1911 was, white 94.2; negro 1.1; Indian .5; Chinese .9; Japanese 2.3."

"From the percentage of 3.3 I determined that there were 108,966 Japanese in the state. It is significant that while my figures on Indians and Chinese closely correspond with those of the federal government, my Japanese figures were 38,000 in excess of the federal census."

"The federal census gave California 17,360 Indians. My system shows 18,500, a difference of only a few hundred."

"The federal census placed the number of Chinese at 28,812 and I found just 29,000."

"A difference of three or four hundred is easily accounted for, but although I arrived at the Japanese population by the same manner as I did that of the Indians and Chinese, my figures differ over the Nipponese by nearly 40,000."

Melon Crop Is Hard Hit by Hot Spell

HUGHSON, June 24.—Hot weather has caused a considerable acreage of melons to droop and wither. Growers expecting to export their product the earliest in the valley market are keenly disappointed, as the young melons in many instances are dropping from the vines. This is particularly noticeable in unirrigated fields. In the Delhi district many vines are drying up in a mysterious manner, and fear is expressed that the dreaded "water-melon wilt" has obtained a foothold there.

Greek Seen Dancing On Roof Held Insane

SANTA ROSA, June 24.—Commitment of Andrew Kapolis, 29-year-old Oakland Greek candy maker, to the state hospital for the insane at Ukiah, was ordered by Superior Judge Emmet Sewell Thursday afternoon. Kapolis was arrested when he ran amuck in a Sonoma hotel, wrecked the establishment and climbed to the roof of the building where he was found dancing a wild dance on a ridge pole, minus all clothes. He was so violent following arrest that he was placed in the padded cell of the county jail.

Kapolis came to Sonoma county from Oakland a week ago.

Wife Accuses Spouse; Pleads to Save Time

LODI, June 24.—When Mrs. George Hepper reached home she found her husband entertaining two girls, she told Judge Solomere, in her complaint, charging him with battery. He refused to let her in, and when he finally did come out, he punched her in the face, she declared. The judge considered 180 days in the county jail was about right, but withheld sentence after fearful pleas by both, with the proviso that Hepper leave intoxicants strictly alone during his period of probation.

In San Francisco, says the report, there are 22,924 Italians, 18,513 Germans, 15,257 Irish, 10,107 English, 5908 French and 7085 Canadians. Total, 83,792.

Nevada's ratio of males to females last year was 148.4 to 100 while a decade before it had reached the high mark of 170.2 to 100.

The state's foreign-born white population constitutes 19.1 per cent of the total which was 2.96 below the percentage given for 1910. In addition to the white population the statistics showed Nevada to have 4,907 Indians, 346 negroes, 399 Chinese and 754 Japanese and 12 members of other races. During the ten years between the census records the state's white population decreased 4.8 per cent and the negro population 32.6 per cent.

Funeral Services Held for W. T. Baker

Funeral services for W. T. Baker were held this morning from St. Francis de Sales church. Besides a widow, he is survived by two sons, Andrew W. Baker of Los Angeles, Paul M. Baker and a daughter, Mrs. P. F. Beatz.

Baker was a pioneer painting contractor of Oakland, where he has resided for more than 40 years. His family home is at 520 Walsworth avenue.

Two Arrested After Ship Strike Battle

A near-riot started last night when five men attacked W. B. Webb and V. R. Riddinger, both of 2545 San Pablo avenue, alleged to be non-union seamen, as they stepped off a Key Route trolley at Twenty-second and Market street. When the police arrived they arrested two men, who gave their names as Thomas Riley and Patrick O'Brien, who are being held for observation. According to the police, the other three men got away. All the men came from San Francisco. Webb and Riddinger were taken to the emergency hospital, where they were treated for cuts and bruises.

Plot to Revive Hanged Men Frustrated, Claim

CHICAGO, June 24.—A plot to restore the spark of life to two executed murderers was frustrated here today.

Jailer Lawrence Meisterheim, who discovered the plot, ordered that the bodies of Grover Redding and Oscar McGavick, colored, who were hanged early today, to be held in the jail for two hours after execution.

The plan, according to the jailer, was to rush the bodies of the murderers to an undertaking room immediately after execution and apply hot blankets and pulmotors in an effort to restore life.

Meisterheim stated that he had definite information that the gallows was almost cheated last December when a spark of life was restored to Nick Bianca, who was hanged.

Bianca, a few seconds later, died "a second time," according to the jailer.

Meisterheim said it would be possible to restore life in cases where the condemned died of strangulation if treatment were applied soon enough.

New Steel Bridge to Span Russian River

SANTA ROSA, June 24.—Construction of the $125,000 bridge across the Russian river at Healdsburg, to replace the old steel and wooden bridge, has begun and motorists are forced to make a two-mile detour to enter Healdsburg from the south. The river is crossed by means of a temporary wooden bridge. Work on the bridge will be in progress during the summer months and the bridge will be completed by November.

Further Cut On Melon Rates Asked

TRUCKEE, June 24.—The new railroad rates on cantaloupes, $1.75 per 100 pounds from Pacific coast points east, means a reduction of about 10 per cent and pleases local melon growers, though the rate is still regarded by them as too high. As a result, the chamber of commerce has wired Congressman Barbour to help obtain a still greater reduction. The acreage in this district is large and crop prospects are excellent.

AVIATORS FIND THREE VICTIMS OF LAKE DISASTER

Bodies Located On Shores of Fallen Leaf After Perilous Trip.

SACRAMENTO, June 24.—The bodies of Grace and De Long Wilber and Miss Jean Wilkie, all of San Francisco, were found by Cadet Aviator Harold Zufall of Mather Field at the south end of Fallen Leaf Lake yesterday after the cadet and his companion, Private Kraut, had narrowly escaped disaster in the treacherous air currents over Lake Tahoe and Fallen Leaf Lake. It was announced by the authorities at Mather Field. The three, together with Mrs. Elleen Wilber, were drowned on Sunday, June 13, while attempting to change boats during a choppy sea.

A fall of 1400 feet almost into the waters of Lake Tahoe and another drop of nearly the same distance marked the hazardous effort of Zufall and Kraut to locate the bodies. They flew over Lake Tahoe first and were making good progress when struck by a treacherous blast. They were saved from a fall into the lake by another air current, and then resumed their journey. Over Fallen Leaf Lake the same experience followed.

The men skirted the lake for some time before they saw the first bodies, two of them being located at the south end of the lake, about 400 yards from the end of the pier. The third body was found at the south-east corner of the lake, several hundred yards distant.

Mrs. Wilber's body was recovered the day after the tragedy.

The aviators were sent from Mather Field at the request of the El Dorado coroner.

Hawaii Military Force Increased

HONOLULU, T. H., June 24.—More than 15,000 officers and men of the United States army compose the present garrison in Hawaii, according to recent semi-official tables compiled here. That this total will be brought to approximately 25,000 is the confident expectation in well-informed circles.

The last important unit to arrive was the Fifty-fifth Artillery, with its equipment of heavy motorized guns.

These troops came during May and are quartered at Fort Kamehameha.

Near Pearl Harbor, the navy's great base in the islands.

WHALE PEEVED WHEN STEAKS CUT FROM BACK

NEW YORK, June 24.—This is a whale of a story: "Thar she blows!" cried George Rand, watchman at the Midland Beach pier, Staten Island, as he saw an 18-foot honest-to-gosh whale spouting a few yards off shore in New York harbor today—five miles from the Woolworth building.

Summoning reinforcements in the person of White Lane, restaurant keeper, Rand boarded his motorboat and put-putted out to do battle.

Rend let the whale, which had stranded in shallow water, have several broadsides from his shotgun. The only effect was a sleepy grunt, according to Rand.

Then Lane got busy with a butcher knife and carved several choice steaks off the whale's back. This is said to have put the critter in a bad temper and it snapped several times at the boat. Remembering Jonah's fate, the amateur whalers put back to shore and added four workmen to their crew.

Heaving a hauser over the whale's starboard ripper, they towed it to the beach.

At last accounts the animal was pretty near ruined but doing as well as could be expected.

Australia Waging War On Pear Curse

SYDNEY, June 24.—Some very interesting announcements in regard to the organized fight of the scientists against the prickly pear curse of Queensland and Northern New South Wales, were made last week by Professor Harvey Johnston, professor of biology and scientific controller attached to the Commonwealth Prickly Pear Board. The professor is just back from America, where he was sent to make arrangements in connection with the prickly pear fight.

He said that he left one of his assistants in America, who is collecting material in Southern Florida, Texas, Southern California and Central Mexico. He was seeking cactological and botanical specimens which showed a disposition to attack the cactus, and these would be sent to Brisbane and carefully tried out.

Another officer had been left in the Argentine, and he was making investigations among the foothills of the Andes, and he would also visit Uruguay, Paraguay and Patagonia.

Two definite fungoid enemies of the plant, both very destructive, have been found. Associated with these fungoids were certain insects, the operation of which seemed to make the work of the fungi more rapid and effective. Experimental work with these fungoids and insects has already been commenced in Queensland.

Benicia Church Scene of Brilliant Wedding

BENICIA, June 24.—With St. Paul's church in Benicia for the setting, Miss Mabel Crooks plighted her troth Wednesday evening, June 22, to Dr. William Sylvester Thompson of Newman, before some three hundred friends and relatives, the Rev. Mr. Rimer officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated in flowers of the pastel shades and banked with green ivy and hollyhock, the candles on the altar throwing a soft glow over the setting. The bride was exquisitely in a bridal gown of white satin, draped with real Belgian lace and embroidered in gold pearls. The bride's veil of princess lace was arranged as a Russian crown at the collar, augmented by a coronet of real lace and draped with orange blossoms over the court train. Ornaments and lilies of the valley in the shower bouquet were caught in streamers with lovers' knots.

The bride was attended by Miss Rita Frame, who wore a jade georgette and rare lace. She carried a huge bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses, which blended beautifully with her gown.

The bridesmaids, Misses Dorothy McFarland of Benicia, Raphaela Hanlon of San Francisco and Mrs. Arthur Dwyer of Martinez, were gowned in attractive dresses in the pastel hues of orchid, blue and peach taffeta. Bouquets of sweetpeas in the pastel shades were carried by each bridesmaid. The bridegroom wore a wreath of dainty flowers harmonizing with the gowns and caught in the back with silver ribbons.

Little Miss Janet Sleight, Barbara McKay, Virginia Chisholm and Vistan Chisholm were the flower maidens. Each one carried a golden bell with which they scattered along the bridal pathway.

Before the ceremony "I Love You Truly" was rendered by Miss Gortrud, Gertrude, Miss Sarah Boone, no longer played the wedding march.

Walter B. Crooks was the best man and the group of ushers were Louis Newman of Newman, Dr. Harold Charles Agair of San Francisco and Dr. Grelsner, U. S. N., Mare Island.

A reception after the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Crooks.

The couple are spending a two weeks' honeymoon at Tahoe Tavern and upon their return will occupy the pretty home in Newman which the bridegroom has prepared for his bride.

ARIANS ARE GIVEN WELCOME BY KING, QUEEN

Officials of International Association Given Audience in London.

LONDON, June 24.—Officials of the International Association of Clubs were received at Buckingham Palace today. The king and queen, the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary shook hands with the visitors and expressed pleasure at meeting them.

als of Sex Low, Woman Officer Says

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 24.—A Bureau of Indianapolis, the woman captain of police, who attending the social work conference, said woman's morals are lower than men's. She regards the condition as a social evil and has hopes for the future.

Women have demanded equal rights and privileges with men," she said. "Although indications are that men's moral standards, women have come down to men's. This is the inevitable swing of the pendulum to extremes which occurs for all great equalizations. The nation will not last and the future will be better for it."

Man Will Be 'Manufactured' Article in Next 200 Years

By RUSSELL BROWNING
WASHINGTON, June 24.—If you are living a couple of hundred years hence don't be startled if you see a sign something like this "Smith, Jones & Co., Manufacturers of Rats, Birds and Humans. Name your species. Prices reasonable."

Professor Austin Clark, head of the biological department of the Smithsonian Institute, declared today that scientists of the future will be able to "manufacture men."

Clark was asked to comment on the announced discovery by French savants of a method of creating organic life from certain quartz and meteoric stones.

"Maybe it's true, maybe not," said Clark. "Many able scientists have been fooled into believing that they have created life. Nearly every other salient mystery of biology has been solved except this one supreme puzzle. It is now possible to construct all the organisms of a living creature. They are chemically and anatomically perfect—but they won't work when it comes to living. If this problem has not now been solved, it will be some day."

"If a primitive form of life can be created, we now know that we could modify and develop that form to any form of higher animal life. The external circumstances that created the different species of life are now known and can be artificially applied. The reason that we cannot take the so-called simple forms of life now and develop them into higher animals is that there are no real primitive forms of life left on the earth. The simplest animacule has developed from the common starting point into a tremendously complex being. A hundred million years of heredity has fixed its life form and traits until artificial modification is now very limited."

"This would not be true of newly created life. Such an organism would be tremendously impressionistic. It would mould and develop under the stimulus of artificial conditions as artistic clay in the hands of the sculptor. Practically any form of life now existent could be created from this primitive cell."

"It would probably take a couple of million generations to produce an animal like a dog or man," said Clark, "but the length of life of each generation could be speeded up, and the whole transformation got through within say 200 years."

"No doubt, a lot of monstrous freaks would be created by mistakes in administering the stimulus."

STORM ENDS HOT WAVE.

WALLA WALLA, June 24.—A spell of hot weather came to a dramatic end here yesterday when a terrific wind and rainstorm struck, tearing down trees, blowing off awnings, smashing plateglass windows and doing other damage throughout the city and district. Hailstones over an inch in diameter fell in the Upper Mill Creek section and some damage was done to fruit and wheat.

CHINA SEEKS LABOR'S AID.

LONDON, June 24.—The president of China, Esu Shih Chang, has appealed to the workers of Great Britain for their friendly assistance in preventing renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, according to the Herald (labor organ), which prints an interview with E. Lenox Simpson, adviser to the Chinese government, saying that Hsu Chih Chang desires such help in "the coming crisis."

EXPERTS ON WAY FOR SURVEY OF S. F. BAY BRIDGE

Plans for Reception Next Monday or Tuesday Are Being Completed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—With the expected arrival on the Overland Tuesday of John Vipond Davies, New York engineer and tunnel expert, and Ralph Modjeski, Chicago bridge expert, who will make a thorough survey relative to the proposed bridge across San Francisco bay, plans for their reception were being completed today by the Motor Car Dealers' Association, San Francisco Newspaper Publishers' Association, Oakland Newspaper Publishers' Association and other organizations.

The first official conference on the bridge-the-bay movement will be held in the chamber of the board of supervisors in the city hall Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Requests were sent today by Supervisor Richard J. Walsh, chairman of the San Francisco bridge-the-bay committee, to members of the committees of Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, and other cities of Alameda and San Mateo counties, to attend the meeting when the movement will be formally launched to connect Oakland and San Francisco by bridge.

Davies and Modjeski will reach this city in time to be present at the meeting.

MISSION WORK
AMONG BAPTISTS
SHOWS PROGRESS

Reports Various Departments
At Convention Held in Des Moines.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 24.—Unsettled foreign policies of governments during the last year have never before had so much effect on the progress of the American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, presented today at the Northern Baptist Convention sessions. Political discords and famine in China, an almost unparalleled financial crisis in Japan, the inauguration of "one of the greatest experiments in democracy ever undertaken" following an amazing national awakening in India, and Mohammedan aggression in Africa, have been factors placing many of the society's missionaries in a delicate position, says the report.

It adds that financial handicaps have been encountered in the industrial depression here, and in the fluctuation of money exchange rates in the Far East, food, clothing and other essentials for the missionaries jumping in cost as the value of silver dropped. Housing has also been a problem.

ROCKEFELLER GIFTS.
During the year, says the report, John D. Rockefeller made three gifts to the society totaling $2,000,000. This sum was grouped with previous gifts from Rockefeller in the last two years into a permanent trust fund known as "The John D. Rockefeller Fund," the income of which will be used for general purposes.

George B. Huntington, the treasurer, reports that $267,000 has been spent during the year for relief in China and Europe.

As a whole but one man in ten and one woman in a hundred out of India's 320,000,000 people can read their own language; and but 3,000,000 can read English, says the report. Only 300,000, it is estimated, learn to read and write each year. Among the 3,876,000 Christians in India one man in four and one woman in ten can read and write. It would be impossible to find teachers, it is declared, to meet needs, for 500,000 villages have not even a primary school, and yet each village averages 60 children of school age.

DEMANDS OF YOUTH.
Young people of today, the targets of so much criticism, are not the ones to blame for their attitude, Rev. Bernard C. Clausen, pastor of the

ARE SCORED BY
L. A. PREACHER

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 24.—That Chinese slave girl traffic is "going on right under the noses of our city officials" was the statement made by Dr. Charles R. Shepherd of Los Angeles, California, general missionary among the Orientals, at the Northern Baptist convention in this city today.

"I know from personal experience and not from hearsay that this is a fact," he declared, citing the instance of a Chinese girl 16 years old sold in San Francisco for $2700.

In speaking of the tongs of the country, Dr. Shepherd said: "These tongs are not only an insult to the churches of America, they are an insult to the great American people. Over the entryway of one of the bloodiest and most powerful fighting tongs in America is a sign 'Bing King Tong, Free Masons.' It is a mockery, a disgrace, a blot on the name of the great American people. It is made up of those who engage in the traffic in Chinese girls, who labor to frustrate our laws, who plan bloody murder, and pay professional assassins to carry out their plans."

The Chinese, as a whole, make good citizens, however, Dr. Shepherd maintained. "The better class among them own their own homes, participate in community affairs, and throw themselves into all great national movements, he said.

First Baptist Church of Syracuse, N. Y., declared.

"Men are charging that the new generation is irreligious," he said. "If this be so, it is futile to spend time in bating the youngsters. The only sane thing for religious leaders to do is to find out what 21 wants in its religion."

The thing that the new generations want most, he declared, is fearlessness.

"It demands a religious faith which prescribes no books, prohibits no courses of study, bans no contacts with the ever-widening horizons of the world's knowledge, erects no walls about itself, but frankly and fearlessly answers every fair question."

"The nagging 'don't of outworn pedantry' is not the religion for 21," Dr. Clausen affirmed. "It insists that religion treats of life rather than of death. The new generation has seen too many of its contemporaries die at the glad height of a glorious adventure, to feel the need of a religion which believes the call of death. It demands a faith which is willing to be judged on the way it prepares men for life."

When religion is able to meet these essential requirements of youth the new generation will embrace it, Dr. Clausen declared.

FILM INDUSTRY
MUST RETRENCH,
PRODUCER SAYS

Movies Face Crisis Because of Poor Management, Says
Jesse L. Lasky.

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—"We must regard the present moment as the most critical that the film industry has faced during its existence," said Jesse L. Lasky, vice-president of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, in a statement here today, outlining plans for a retrenchment in every department of the production activities of the concern.

Lasky declared that "abnormal and exorbitant salaries, needless and wasteful extravagance, and unbusiness-like methods that have obtained to a greater or lesser degree in the motion picture business, must come to an end."

He said Famous Players-Lasky Corporation would concentrate on production activity in Los Angeles but added:

"It is obvious that unless our plan for the development of the industry in Los Angeles meets with success it will be natural to return to the eastern seaboard where there are greater resources, more talent available and where we would be in closer touch with the centers of administration and distribution."

Hawaii Shipments
of Sugar Lagging

HONOLULU, T. H., June 24.—Sugar shipments from Hawaii were approximately 100,000 tons behind schedule at the end of May, according to the official figures compiled by the sugar factors. Up to May 23 there had been a total of 211,250 tons of the 1921 crops sent to the mainland. By the end of April last year there had been 206,036 tons shipped out of the islands. It is estimated that the total crop of the islands this year will be 485,700 tons.

Santa Rosa Limits
Size of Firecracker

SANTA ROSA, June 24.—This city will have a quiet Fourth of July if the plans of Mayor W. R. Rutherford and Fire Chief William Duncan do not miscarry. The mayor and the fire chief have made a series of rules regulating the use of fireworks in the city, prohibiting anything above the four-inch firecracker size.

Invitations
For July
Weddings Out

Invitations for July weddings are being received by Eastbay folk. A number of the college set are to be married the latter part of next month. July 20 has been named by two brides-elect for their nuptials, Miss Adelaide Corbin, who will wed Alfred Brunson Willoughby in St. Clement's chapel, and Miss Myrtle Cowan, who is to plight her troth to E. A. Johnston at the home of the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. W. R. Boone of Mariposa, avenue.

Cards to the number of two hundred and fifty have been sent out for the Corbin-Willoughby wedding, at which Rev. Augustus Martyr, rector of the church, will officiate. A wedding supper for the members of the bridal party and kindred will be served at the Corbin home later. Miss Virginia Willoughby, sister of the bride-elect, is to be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will include the Misses Marion Blankenship, Mary Wilson and Edith McLennan. Little Jean Willoughby is to be flower maiden and Weddell Day will serve as best man. The group of ushers will include L. G. Harrier, Harold Plummer, L. G. Harrier and Alan Van Riper.

Both Willoughby and his bride-to-be are graduates of the University of California. Miss Corbin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thornton Corbin of Cherry street and the bridegroom-elect a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Willoughby of Webster street.

Little Audrey Myrtle Cowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cowan, will be flower girl, and Master Robert C. Boone, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. Boone, is to be ring-bearer. Mrs. Boone will be hostess at a luncheon for Miss Cowan in the near future.

WILL GO TO RUSSIAN RIVER.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank M. Sisley will leave Monday for the Russian river country to spend their vacation at their cottage at Guerneville Park. The Misses Edna and Isabel Sisley are now at the resort awaiting the arrival of their parents. Miss Isabel Sisley was a member of the bridal party at the marriage of Miss Cecile Hopf and Gene Haywood the first of the month.

Mrs. and Mrs. Gene Haywood (Cecile Hopf), who spent their honeymoon at Del Monte, have gone to Los Angeles to make their home. Their wedding was an interesting event to the school set. The Misses Isabel Sisley and Gene Haywood were bridesmaids with Miss Elizabeth Hopf as maid of honor. The bride's cousin, Bruce Mills, was best man.

RECEPTION TO SUMMER FACULTY.
Yesterday afternoon Professor and Mrs. Walter Morris Hart were hosts at a reception at their home in Piedmont avenue for the faculty of the summer session and their wives. Tea was served in the gardens of the home. In the receiving party were Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Mrs. Charles Noble, Mrs. Agnes Fay Morgan, Dr. Jessica Pelto, Miss Mary P. Patterson, Miss Maude Sutton, Mrs. Frank Stringham, Mrs. Edward von Adelung and Mrs. Anson Blake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Alfred Biehl (Mary Park) are back from their honeymoon, which was passed at Highland Inn at Carmel-by-the-Sea. They have gone to Sacramento to make their home.

LEAVE FOR EASTERN TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. James Adams Stewart leave June 28 for a two months' sojourn in the East and Canada, will visit the larger cities on the Atlantic coast and for a time will be guests of Mr. Stewart's relatives in Milwaukee. In Canada they will stop at Banff and Lake Louise en route home. Meanwhile the young matron has been the motif for informal affairs and among her hostesses have been Mesdames Bertram Adams, Victor Anderson, Jack Ostoff and Miss Hazel Thoms.

One of the season's smartest weddings was solemnized in Lodi on June 19, when Miss Vera Anne Hinch of Sacramento was wedded to Clyde E. Garner of Lodi. The bride made a stunning picture in her wedding gown of white georgette with picture hat to match. Her maid of honor, who was Miss Camille Young of Claremont, wore a pink organdie dress with organdie hat. Eugene Hinch of Burkha gave the bride away, while the groom's brother, Floyd Garner, was best man. The wedding was attended by many friends and relatives from the bay cities, as well as Sacramento. Among those from Oakland were: Mrs. E. Young, Miss Helen Young, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Hinch, Miss Lucille Hinch, Thomas George Miss Camille Young, Miss Eleanor Dodge of Sacramento, Miss Rita Benedict of Lodi, Dr. and Mrs. Blodgett and many others. After a honeymoon spent in Mexico the couple will reside in Lodi, where the groom has ranching interests.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lyon of Piedmont will spend the season at Coronado beach, where they have taken a bungalow.

Living to See Ten
Million Here, Claim

SACRAMENTO, June 24.—Jonathan S. Dodge, new State Superintendent of Banks, in an address before the Rotary and Lions Clubs here, declared the present population of California will see a population of 10,000,000.

"I am struck right at once with the savings deposits of the people of California," said he, "which are nearly 1,000,000,000, distributed among 1,500,000 people. The average is almost $666 per depositor, if distributed among all the population it would amount to $221 per capita."

"I want at all times to be human and help the banks and the bankers of California."

Southern University
Gives Governor Degree

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—The degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon Governor Stephen G. Young, Miss Eleanor Dodge of Sacramento, Miss Rita Benedict of Lodi, Dr. and Mrs. Blodgett and many others. After a honeymoon spent in Mexico the couple will reside in Lodi, where the groom has ranching interests.

Senate and House Conferences Also Agree On Force of 110,000 Men.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—A total of $414,067,440 is carried by the naval appropriation bill under final figures completed today by senate and house conferees. This is an increase of $18,067,000 over the original house appropriations and almost $80,000,000 less than the senate provided. The bill also provides for a personnel of 110,000 men.

The measure as agreed to carries the Borah amendment requesting and authorizing the President to enter into negotiations for a disarmament conference between the United States, Great Britain and Japan. Senate provisions eliminated included those for acquisition of a site for a submarine base at San Pedro, Calif., establishment of a submarine and destroyer base at Guam, completion of the New London, Conn. submarine base, continuation of construction of a rigid dirigible and new construction of aircraft and equipment at a cost of $6,125,750.

Catnip and Poll Tax Are Among Queries to Tribune

Catnip and poll tax were among the queries submitted today to The TRIBUNE'S Information Department.

One of The TRIBUNE readers asks whether he can obtain fresh catnip. Catnip grows wild in Northern California, but may be cultivated here. Seeds may be purchased from any seed store. If the person desiring this information will call again the Information Bureau will give him the name and address of a person from whom fresh catnip may be ordered.

Here is another query that just came in: "Is a Canadian who has lived in the States five years and will get final citizens papers inside of 10 months classed as an alien and obliged to register?"

Yes, he is classed as an alien until he receives final papers. Must register at the county clerk's office. The TRIBUNE'S Information Bureau will answer all questions of a general nature except school or legal problems, debates, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

The Bureau is open every day except Sunday from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. If answers are desired by mail, stamps must be enclosed. Quick results can be obtained by telephoning to the bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve, ask The TRIBUNE'S Information Bureau, Lakeside 6000.

BLUEJACKETS IN FOURTH PARADE

The Oakland Fourth of July celebration will be even bigger and better than at first hoped. The admiral in command of the Pacific Fleet today notified the Fourth of July committee that three destroyers will come to Oakland on the Fourth and will anchor alongside the Clay street wharf for public inspection. Five hundred bluejackets have been ordered to Oakland to attend the festivities.

A special program for the sailors is being arranged, including an athletic program and a barbecue at Lakeside Park.

"The news," says Major Harry Huber, general chairman, "means that Oakland's parade and display will be just that much bigger. We are glad to get 500 bluejackets as our celebration and glad to entertain them." The committee, meeting last night, decided upon a thrill stunt of unusual daring when the airplanes bombard the fleet of boats on Lake Merritt on the Fourth.

An airplane will be set afire at 2000 feet elevation and the aviator will make a parachute jump. "We hope that doesn't make folks sit up and take notice, nothing can," says Huber.

The firing of the airplane will be carefully staged and the daring aviator will be well equipped with all the best life-saving apparatus. It is admitted that the feat has its dangers, but some of the flyers have vied for the preparations of making the fall.

The committee last night decided upon a special concert by the municipal band as one of the items on the big program as well as a patriotic program at 3 p. m. at the auditorium. A feature of this will be ten minutes of Americanization work for foreign-born citizens.

CANOE CAPSIZES, TWO BOYS SAVED FROM DROWNING

Municipal Boathouse Men Aid Double Rescue On Lake Merritt.

Frank Silva, 907 Pine street and Walter Tornell, 1416 Eleventh street were saved from probable drowning last night by municipal boathouse employees when the canoe in which they were boating capsized in the middle of Lake Merritt. Due to the heavy wind the two men were put ding back to the boathouse when the canoe overturned.

Although unable to swim both of the men managed to grasp the sides of the overturned craft while they called lustily for help. Hearing the cries, E. M. Smith in charge of the municipal boathouse dispatched three men in two fast motor launches. Charles Higgins, A. A. Boller and Will Kraus added in the double rescue. The men were taken to the boathouse where their clothes dried and then sent home. Silva is 19 and Tornell 20.

DONALD MACKAY SUED BY GIRL HE FORGETS IS WIFE

Mrs. H. Mackay in S. F. On Visit Shows License to Prove Wedding.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—In dispatches from the east today, Mrs. M. Galloway, formerly Beatrice Wright of Sacramento, prominent in the Capital society, was named as co-respondent in the divorce action of Mrs. Olga Harting Mackay of San Francisco and former Ziegfeld Follies girl, against Donald F. Mackay, Jr., nephew of Donald Mackay, I., former president of the New York Stock Exchange. Simultaneously with the arrival of the eastern dispatch came the information that Mackay married Mrs. Galloway December 22 last and that he was not yet free from his marriage to the Broadway beauty.

Mrs. Harting Mackay is in San Francisco at present on an extended visit to her father, George T. Harting, prominent business and sporting man, and was shown a New York dispatch, in which Mackay is quoted as saying he "did not remember marrying Olga Harting, and his mother, Mrs. George D. Mackay, is quoted as denying that her son ever married the show girl. Mrs. Mackay then declared she was married to Mackay on May 24, 1915, in Newark, N. J., and, in proof of her statements, produced a marriage license bearing the date of May 24, 1915, and the names "Olga Harting" and "Donald Mackay, Jr." The license showed that the ceremony was performed by Judge Edward Wolf.

At the same time Mrs. Mackay revealed that she would bring a $100,000 allegation of affection suit against Mrs. Galloway as soon as time would permit, and refused to comment further on her affairs today.

Lucky Fireman Goes East to Fight as Guest of Fellows

Introducing L. F. BLACK, a member of the Oakland Fire Department, who will leave tomorrow to attend the big fight, July 2.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—A boatload of the battle ship Texas, the cruiser Salem and sixteen destroyers is anchored in man-of-war row. The vessels arrived here yesterday and will remain until June 29 when they will depart for Washington and Oregon ports for the Fourth of July celebrations in those places.

Charged with violating the law with regard to selling firearms, H. Epstein, who conducts a gun store at 55 Sixth street, is under arrest today. He is said to have sold a revolver to Thomas Ogden, without a permit. Mrs. Ogden is said to have told Epstein she wanted the gun for protection. Later, according to the police, she admitted that she intended to kill her husband because he failed to support her.

Federal officers today have 502 bottles of Scotch whisky, worth more than $800, following a raid on the steamship Ventura yesterday. The Ventura arrived here from Australia on Tuesday.

Belmont is threatened with the long war that has been errorizing San Francisco's Chinatown. Fong Tong, a Chinese laborer on the Mazie ranch, was fired at from ambush last night. Nine shots were fired, but Fong Tong was unhurt. A volley of shots was fired through the roof of a bunkhouse on the Ross ranch a short distance away, on Wednesday night.

It is announced that San Leandro will be represented by City Attorney J. A. Brunner in the protest of the city before the State Railroad Commission against the East Bay Water Company's "ready to serve" charge.

The Fourth in San Francisco will be the occasion for an unusually big celebration. This was evident at the citizens' committee meeting on Independence Day celebration held at the city hall yesterday. One of the important features will be the parade.

Instructions have been received from Washington for Chinese consumption only. The Chinese wines now being held by the federal authorities. About 144,000 quarts are being held.

In an opinion handed down by Federal Judge Doelling, Curt Moritz Koester, German born, but who, during the late war, declared his loyalty to the United States, has been ordered admitted to citizenship. Koester, as an alien enemy, was forced to claim exemption during the war, although he pleaded with the draft board for a chance to go to war.

Sammy Reshevsky, child chess marvel, has ten more victories to his credit following the reception tendered him last night by the Jewish people of San Francisco, in the Italian Room of the Hotel St. Francis. One of Sammy's opponents was Professor B. A. Born.

Funds for Trip Are Raised by Popular Subscription.

Plans for a formal farewell for L. F. Black, 2647 Humboldt avenue, a member of engine company No. 17, who will leave tomorrow morning for the east, where, as an official representative of the Oakland Fire department, he will witness the world's championship heavyweight fight between Georges Carpentier and Jack Dempsey at Jersey City, N. J., on July 2, were being completed today by members and officials of the department.

Black, who has been chosen by all the firemen of Oakland to attend the event, will leave on the Western Pacific tomorrow morning at 9:55 from the station at Thirteenth and Washington streets. He expects to arrive in New York Wednesday night or Thursday morning, and will go direct to Jersey City, where the title bout will be staged the following Saturday.

The funds to defray Black's expenses for the trip were raised by popular subscription by members of the department. The movement started several weeks ago, when it was learned that members of the departments, and crafts in various cities were being sent to the event.

Black will be accorded a demonstration before his train leaves tomorrow morning, and just before he boards the limited he will be presented with an envelope containing ringside seats to the event. The fact that Chief Elliott Whitehead, who was to make this presentation, was called out of town early today may make a slight change in the program, but it was announced that if Whitehead did not return the presentation would be made by another officer of the department.

Black will have a leave of absence until July 16, and during the time he is in the east will represent the Oakland department in a tour of several cities, reporting on his observations to Chief Whitehead immediately upon his return.

Due to the fact that added interest will be displayed by local firemen in the outcome of the battle, because of their own representative at the ringside, The TRIBUNE has arranged to flash the fight results, round by round, to all of the city's fire companies, on July 2. As soon as the reports are received over The TRIBUNE's special leased wire, they will be relayed to the stations, in order that the men may have first word on the event.

The day's program will include literary exercises, a pageant typifying the Americanization spirit of the people, singing by the Swedish choral society, and other features. District Attorney Ezra Decevo of Oakland will deliver the main address of the day on Americanization.

The celebration will be presided over by Queen Helen Blom, who will also take the principal role in the pageantry. Miss Winnie Johnson will portray "Columbia," and Miss Eleanor Carson will play "Svea." Other leaders in the pageant are Emma Erikson, Edith Engberg, Elaine Peterson, and Olga Gustafson.

Fog Saves Scorched Sonoma Fruit Crops

SANTA ROSA, June 24.—Heavy fog which hung heavy over Sonoma county Thursday was worth tens of thousands of dollars to Sonoma county berry and apple growers, according to Farm Adviser Henry A. Weinland, after a tour of inspection of the orchards and fields.

Scorched by the heat wave of the early week the fruit threatened to be a total loss in many instances, but the fog revived it, and, with continued foggy weather, the loss will be cut to a major extent.

SEVEN KILLED BY COLLAPSE OF FILM THEATER

BARNESBORO, Pa., June 24.—This was a town of sorrow today following the collapse of a wall and roof of the Grand theater, a motion picture house, late yesterday, which resulted in the death of seven persons. The foundations of the theater building, softened by rain, crumbled beneath the wall and the entire side of the structure caved in, carrying the roof into the center of the auditorium. The crash came during a second afternoon performance when the majority of those present were children. Not more than twenty persons were in the house at the time.

$414,000 NEEDED BY CHARITY BODY FOR COMING YEAR

A business of something more than $414,000 will probably be required during the coming year by the Associated Charities. The early fall will launch a campaign for funds for $15,000 to assist in the relief work and make the deficit not provided for in State and county appropriations and regular subscriptions. Three hundred and eighty-two widows with approximately 1500 children are receiving pensions running from $20 to $120 a month, aggregating an annual total of $218,000, according to Miss Elizabeth Skeels, executive secretary. Three hundred and fifty elderly people are being kept in their own homes through small monthly allowances, the report showed, while approximately 1500 families are being assisted. The expense of this work totals about $70,000 this year. Blind pensions are amounting to about $5000 annually. Two hundred and twenty-five children, wards of the juvenile court committed to its care, are being supervised by the association. The Scottish Rites organization have appropriated $6000 this year to provide the children with a pint of milk a day, and the Elks have provided a $500 fund for their clothing.

Shotgun Explodes, Sets Fire to House

KNIGHTS FERRY, June 24.—The house of George W. Knight caught fire in a peculiar manner yesterday. Knight was outside and heard a shot and went around the house to see who was shooting so close to the place. Seeing no one, he went inside and discovered the wallpaper in a corner in flames, which he soon extinguished. A shotgun left against the wall had been fired, the shot was in the wall ceiling, and the wallpaper had burst into flames. There was no one in the house at the time and had not Knight investigated the cause of the shot without doubt his home would have been destroyed.

Fire burned over about 600 acres of stubble and grain between Knights and Brentwood yesterday afternoon before the volunteer fire-fighters had it under control. The fire burned over the land of Charles E. Sanford, leased by A. Bonickson and the grain of R. E. Lemoine and George Nunn.

When A. H. Shafer, C. L. Kreim and C. H. Noyes were going to the grain fire in the car of Shafer they were run into by Mrs. George Geddes, who was leaving her driveway. Luckily no one was injured, but the car of Shafer was a wreck. The other car was not badly damaged.

Labor Agency, Aid to Filipinos, Plan

MANILA, P. I., June 24.—San Francisco Varona, harbor commissioner to Hawaii who is now in Seattle investigating the conditions of Filipino laborers in the northwest, has been ordered by the secretary of commerce to proceed to Kansas and there study its laws on industrial relations. His report on this subject will be submitted to the legislature of the Philippines where a bill on industrial relations was introduced during the last session, but failed of passage.

Varona, in a report to the secretary of commerce, recommends the establishment of a labor agency in Seattle for the protection of the interests of Filipino laborers.

Honolulu Preachers Want Disarmament

H., June 24.—Central Union Church, Honolulu, whose members are drawn from the Presbyterian, Congregational and Methodist denominations, and which rears its spire in the heart of this heavily fortified and garrisoned outpost of the republic, recently approved by unanimous vote the action of the United States Senate in requesting President Harding to call an international disarmament conference. The motion was put by the minister of the church, Rev. A. W. Palmer, and it passed without a dissenting voice.

Modesto Boy Scout Quota Falls Short

MODESTO, June 24.—With the city's quota set at $3,300 for the Boy Scout activities for the year, Modesto is about $1,300 short. Business firms contributed by far the greater part of the sum raised. Canvassers have not found residents responding as had been expected. They will, however, proceed to clean up their districts, and hope to raise the amount.

Outlook Gloomy for Trout in Big Sur

SAN JOSE, June 24.—John R. Chace, Supervisor Henry Ayer, County Auditor Al Shilling and E. Whitehead, the latter of San Francisco, will leave San Jose Saturday morning for a week's fishing trip in the Big Sur country in Monterey county. STEEL RIOT PROBE ASKED OF HARDING BY LABOR HEADS Lines Tightly Drawn for the American Federation Election Tomorrow.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEADS WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

DENVER, June 24.—The convention of the American Federation of Labor today called upon President Harding to investigate the strike riots at the Standard Steel Car Company, Hammond, Ind., in September, 1918, and fix the responsibility for the "issuing of guns" and the death of four steel workers.

The resolution charged that the attackers were shot down with riot guns furnished by the U. S. Government.

Enactment of legislation by Congress providing "strict Federal control of the production and distribution of natural resources not privately held and privately developed" was demanded by the convention.

The convention voted to make the election of officers a special order of business for 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The Secretary of War and Secretary of Navy and Civil Service Commission were called upon by resolution to immediately discharge from the government service all alien employees who fail to qualify for citizenship.

MUST NOT INTERFERE, IS GOMPER'S WARNING.

Electing officers on the part of delegates interrupted proceedings, and President Samuel Gompers had considerable trouble to keep order so the committees could report. He issued a warning from the platform to Federation organizers that they must not interfere with the election of officers.

"No organizer has a right or privilege," he said, "to espouse the candidacy of any aspirant to office in the American Federation of Labor. To whom it may concern, I say, take notice."

John M. McPharland, president of the Typographical Union, in an address on the printing trades fight, said that his union was raising $200,000 for strike benefits and we can keep it up longer than the employers can.

The convention unanimously rejected a proposal by the Central Labor Council, Seattle, Wash., to establish a national-wide campaign to establish a maximum six-hour day and abolish all overtime in industry.

M. W. Marun of the Blacksmith Union, speaking in behalf of the resolution calling for investigation of the Hammond shooting, declared "struck gunmen fired into a crowd of strikers without provocation," killing four and dangerously wounding twenty others.

"I don't like to speak of this on the convention floor," he said, "but it involves a crime—murder." He declared the strikers were trying to parade to show their strength before the strikebreakers, when police stopped them, and "a crowd of gunmen not in the uniform of the U. S. Government," drove up in motor trucks and opened fire.

GOMPER'S REPLY TO LEWIS'S STATEMENT.

The announcement by John L. Lewis of the platform on which he is running for the presidency of the federation brought a statement today from President Gompers, who declared "it is not the right or the privilege of any individual to make a platform in the labor movement."

"Lewis in his announcement yesterday declared for nationalization of the mines, government control of the railroads and other 'progressive policies.'"

"I am well enough known to the wage earners," said Gompers, "as having been faithful in the cause, for the protection of their rights, interests and welfare, to make it unnecessary to announce a declaration of the principles upon which I stand."

"Under the principles which I have adopted the American Federation of Labor has advanced further than has any other labor movement in the history of the world."

"The American Federation of Labor writes its own platform. No individual has a right to formulate its platform."

Gompers Makes Speech On W. R. Hearst's Stand On Ireland and Labor

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEADS WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

DENVER, June 24.—William Randolph Hearst was denounced on the floor of the convention of the American Federation of Labor yesterday by President Samuel Gompers as a "traitor to the cause of America, to the cause of freedom, to the cause of labor and to the cause of Ireland."

This statement, together with many other denunciatory remarks regarding Hearst made by President Gompers, in reply to a question from the floor as to his stand on the Irish question, were cheered and applauded by the delegates.

The veteran labor leader declared that Hearst had attacked him because he had declined to be "chained to his mad chariot for the president of the United States" and because he had tried to "use up the Mexico shall go undisturbed and not overrun by the American forces."

TELLS IRISH STAND.

Defining his stand on the Irish question, President Gompers declared that he had "every declaration of the federation extending sympathy and aid to the Irish republic."

"The only real charge against me is, and I plead guilty to it, that I have not freed Ireland," he said.

"I challenge any man to show I have been faithless to any declaration made by the American Federation of Labor or that I have been false, faithless or negligent to any of its directions."

"When the American Federation of Labor declared that policies be pursued, even if they drove me to jail, I did not falter in the light of the faith."

President Gompers expressed regret that he had to discuss this matter before the election of officers.

Gompers asked the delegates not to misunderstand his remarks as a "play for votes," adding:

"I wouldn't stoop to ask men to vote for support me in any position. In this position as representative and spokesman, or at least spokesman, for part of the American Federation of Labor, I must be able to hold up my head and say to any man 'Yes' or 'No.'"

"No organization has received any special favors or support, not even my own, in preference over any other organization. I have tried to do my full duty without regard to the consequence to myself, and with honor."

The labor leader declared Hearst had conducted a campaign against him through his newspapers and publications and had "combust Chicago to get some respectable trade unionists to say something against me without success."

In declaring that he had declined to support Hearst, the president, President Gompers said:

"In his (Hearst's) brain there germinated an inspiration to be president of the United States. He tried to chain me to his mad chariot for the presidency and to speak the language of the street, I could not see him and I frankly told him so."

The labor leader declared he would do all in his power to prevent Hearst from having the United States send its military forces into Mexico and "plant our flag there and never take it down."

Referring to his former reply to alleged attacks made by Hearst upon him and upon his associates, who were of foreign birth, Gompers said:

"When he questioned our loyalty or the right to speak for American labor because he said that we were not born here, I answered him by saying something like this: 'I am willing that the government of the United States shall decide between you and me, as to who was more loyal to the republic of the United States in its greatest hour of danger.'"

Many times during his address Gompers was compelled to pause by his organization and its declarations and principles and not run away from any crisis, no matter what it may involve.

"The American Federation of Labor, by its declarations and its actions, makes its platform, and upon that platform those who serve it must stand. The platform is the sum total of all the thought and the work of the movement. I may have contributed to that sum total, but no individual may write the platform for the whole movement."

until the wild demonstrations of the delegates had subsided. He was cheered repeatedly and many times delegates arose from their seats to lead the ovation.

ASKED FOR EXPLANATION.

M. J. McGuire of San Francisco, in asking President Gompers to make known his attitude on the Irish question, said:

"Prior to this convention a number of people in this country, not connected with the labor movement, were willing to take up the labor movement and the Irish movement, not for the benefit of either movement."

"Some of them came to this convention—somebody's pay, I believe—not for the benefit of Ireland, but for the benefit of some other kind of arm that they might gain propaganda for their own ends."

"I have waited, Mr. Chairman, for you to make a statement. Up to the present time that statement has not been made in the light of the millions of Irish people in this country. I will ask you now—and not with any thought of arm arising at this time—to create a vote for the labor movement and the Irish movement."

The directors voted an appropriation of $200 to the livestock committee to be expended in putting over this feature of the coming show.

The community center report from A. J. Garin, stated that four districts were already lined up and had begun a campaign to exhibit on a larger scale than ever before. In the rules and regulations governing the show, adopted at last night's meeting, were two additional clauses of interest to the various centers, namely—a clause providing for the awarding of first, second and third prizes for the most original exhibits, the best executed and those containing the most quality and variety.

These prizes will be in addition to the ones offered yearly to the best booth judged on general characteristics, and also that the winner of the display in the community center section will have their name engraved on a suitable plaque which will be placed in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The change in the directorship of the show occasioned by the retirement of Chairman Grindell, of the grain and forage committee, resulted in the appointment of George Jensen, Dr. W. McCord, and Dr. W. Jensen, practically all the space for outside exhibitors was sold. W. T. Knightly, secretary of the show, expects the supervisors to duplicate their last year's aid.

Requests were authorized sent to the county board and the California Dairy Council asking the organizations to place exhibits in the coming show.

MAN SURPRISED WHEN HIS STORY WINS FREEDOM

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—John Hedric, employed in a cafe at 1203 Park avenue, Emeryville, was a most surprised individual today when he learned that Judge Dooley's courtroom, free man. He had been in jail for eleven days, charged with violating the prohibition laws, desertion and abandonment of wife and friends and without counsel. He was expecting further incarceration but his story earned him his release.

The customer came in on June 13 and asked for a drink, Hedric explained. "The head waiter told me to get a bottle, which I did, and I served the man with a drink. I didn't know what to charge him, but I asked 50 cents. He was an officer, and arrested me as well as the proprietor."

Andrew Anderson and Louis Maravich, the manager, were taken into custody at the same time as Hedric, obtained a release on bonds, leaving their companion in misfortune in July.

"See that you are here on July 2," said Judge Dooley. "I can't very well be any place else," replied Hedric. "I'm in jail."

"No, you are not, I am going to let you go," said the court, much to the defendant's astonishment.

GROGER ADMITS HE PUT ON SALE IMPURE NOODLES

Two different brands of noodles which were alleged to be adulterated, were discussed at length today before Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell when O. Takagawa, a grocer, was tried on charges of violating the pure food law.

He pleaded guilty to one charge of selling adulterated soy noodles, but of the charge of selling plain noodles which he admitted to be adulterated he pleaded not guilty. He will be sentenced Monday morning for the admitted offense, and on the charge that he pleaded not guilty he will have his trial on the same day.

Six other defendants appeared before Judge Tyrrell on charges of violating the standard packing laws. They pleaded guilty to packing over-ripe strawberries with good berries and the remainder pleaded not guilty to packing over-ripe apricots with the good ones. G. Nishizaki, T. Oishi, T. Iwasaki, all of Mayfield, pleaded guilty and were fined $50 apiece. The three who pleaded not guilty are T. Yamashita, Y. Yamashita and G. Tanaka, all of Hayward. They will be tried Monday.

HAYWARD FAIR OFFICERS HEAR SPACE DEMANDS

Indications Are That Farm Products Show Will Be Big Success.

HAYWARD, June 24.—"Nothing to report but progress," became a slogan at last night's meeting of the directors of the Eden Township Farm Products show here. Every chairman who reported was enthusiastic over the work already accomplished.

Frank Belvel, chairman of the amusements and concessions committee, stated that he had been flooded with applications for booths in his department.

Mrs. W. T. Knightly, chairman of the women's division of the Farm Products Show, entered a request for more space than had been at first allotted this feature, which was granted.

The directors voted an appropriation of $200 to the livestock committee to be expended in putting over this feature of the coming show.

Boys at Play With Rifle; One Is Shot And Seriously Hurt

MARTINEZ, June 24.—Walter Heide, about 14 years old, of Walnut Creek, is in the Martinez hospital today in a serious condition, suffering from a gun shot wound in his abdomen, inflicted accidentally yesterday afternoon.

Heide and several other boys were playing in a field at Walnut Creek, when the accident occurred. One of the boys, Sheldon Woods, had a rifle which during the play was discharged accidentally. The bullet struck Heide and lodged in his abdomen.

He was taken to the hospital here, where his condition was pronounced serious.

ALIENS LIKELY TO FACE ARREST

An opinion that aliens refusing to register under the alien poll tax law when asked to do so by a deputy registrar may be arrested at once, without waiting for the expiration of the time in which registration is permitted, was rendered today by Chief Deputy District Attorney Theodore Wittchen, following a request by County Clerk George E. Gross.

Registrar Jo A. Wagner reported that many aliens, particularly Japanese and Chinese, have refused to be registered, the Orientals having been advised by the consulates that their treaty rights are being invaded by the new law and that they should decline to register until the matter is settled between the governments involved.

Wittchen said it will be necessary to make a case of such a refusal to register, and that it may require a longer time to decide the case than is embraced in the period of registration.

FIRE PROTECTION IN CONTRA COSTA RANGERS' PLEA

Pasture and Grain Blazes in County Bring Drive to Curb Carelessness.

MARTINEZ, June 24.—Pasture and grain fires near Brentwood and at Muir Station yesterday afternoon burned over more than 700 acres of land, did many thousands dollars' worth of damage and threatened destruction of homes and orchards and property loss that might have mounted into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

With a half-dozen fires in the last week, the county are being aroused and today sentiment throughout the whole of Contra Costa county was crystallizing to one conclusion—carelessness must be curbed.

A committee of farmers to wait upon the board of supervisors and ask that body to enact laws safeguarding ranches from destruction by flames. In the last five days damage of more than $50,000 has been done to farms by fires.

CIGARETTE CAUSE.

A cigarette thrown carelessly from an automobile at Brentwood yesterday afternoon started a blaze which consumed 600 sacks of grain, burned 130 acres of standing grain on the R. A. La Moine and George Nunn ranches and threatened destruction of the Brentwood high school. Many acres of pasture land was destroyed. The loss this morning was estimated at about $20,000. A large tract of grain in last week was saved.

Between 200 and 300 men and the Brentwood chemical engine fought the flames. The blaze spread wildly toward the Brentwood high school, but was checked by the fire department. The damage is placed at about $25,000.

Japan, Lacking Outside Aid, Will Yield to U. S.

By NEWTON C. PARKER

International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, June 24.—The Japanese government has decided to yield ground to the United States, not only in the dispute over Yap Island, but in other questions involving the Shantung peninsula and Manchuria, according to the usually well informed Tokyo correspondent of the Journal des Debats.

This is true, says the Debats' correspondent, because Japan knows she will get aid from neither France nor England in an encounter with the United States, and Germany is in no position to aid her. The Tokyo correspondent reveals for the first time that the foreign situation appeared so grave in the eyes of Japanese diplomats early in May that there was talk of cutting short the European tour of the Japanese crown prince, Hirohito.

"It is easily understood that Japan will not allow herself to be seduced by disarmament proposals. On the contrary, she is pushing actively the strengthening of her means of defense. She needs outside help for this work, for she is far outclassed in this line by the United States. For very good reasons France is not answering her appeal. THE BUDGET SYSTEM.

When President Harding signed, on June 10, the "Budget and Accounting Act of 1921" he marked the end of the long struggle for the adoption of the budget and completed what is expected to prove one of the most important acts of constructive legislation in the history of the federal government. There is no record of any other peace time act of Congress in which such unanimity to forget partisan purposes and unite for the betterment of government service was manifested as in the enactment of this budget law.

It is impracticable, in the space here available, to give a detailed analysis of the changes which will be introduced as a result of the Act of June 10, but some of the essential features may be briefly outlined. They will indicate the substantial changes which the budget law requires to be made in the administration of the fiscal affairs of the government.

Following generally the outline of a study of the act by Prof. W. F. Willoughby, director of the national Institute for Government Research in the Weekly Review, these main features are as follows:

First, the responsibility of the President as head of the Administration is made real and unescapable. Annually, upon Congress assembling in regular session, he must submit to it a document, to be known as a budget, in which shall be set forth in detail: (1) the condition of the Treasury at the end of the last completed fiscal year, the estimated condition of the Treasury at the end of the year in progress, and the estimated condition of the Treasury at the end of the ensuing year if the financial proposals contained in the budget are adopted; (2) the revenues and expenditures of the Government during the last completed fiscal year and the estimated revenues and expenditures of the Government during the year in progress; (3) the provisions which, in his opinion, should be made for meeting the revenue and expenditure needs of the Government during the year to ensue; and (4) such other financial statements and data as, in his opinion, are necessary, or desirable, in order that Congress may have before it all the information needed by it in determining the administrative and financial policies of the Government for the future.

Secondly, the President is given an organ of general administration through which he can meet this added responsibility. This organ, the Bureau of the Budget, is "to make a detailed study of the departments and establishments for the purpose of enabling the President to determine what changes, with a view of securing greater economy and efficiency in the conduct of the public service, should be made in (1) the existing organization, activities and methods of business of such departments or establishments, (2) the appropriations therefor, (3) the assignment of particular activities to particular services, or (4) the regrouping of services." And to prepare for the President "a codification of all laws or parts of laws relating to the preparation and transmission to Congress of receipts and expenditures of the Government, and of estimates of appropriations."

HOUSE RULES AMENDED.

Thirdly, through the amendment to the rules of the House, provision is made that the budget, when received by that body, shall be handled as a single harmonious program. It does away with the system which had existed in the past, under which consideration of the expenditure needs of the Government was had by a number of committees each working independently of the others and without reference to any general financial programme, by providing that thereafter all jurisdiction in respect to the appropriation of funds should be vested in a single committee of thirty-five members.

This change in the rules of the House does more than provide that hereafter all of the regular appropriation bills shall be considered by a single committee. It prohibits any other committee from providing in any bill reported by it for an appropriation. Should it attempt to do so, the section providing for such an appropriation is open to a point of order and will have to go out on objection being made by a single member.

It furthermore meets the evil of the Senate's lacking on to appropriation bills riders of a general legislative character. This it does by providing that the representatives of the House on any conference committee having the consideration of any bill carrying an appropriation shall not have authority to agree to any such amendment until such amendment has been brought before the House and the latter has specifically agreed that it shall be acquiesced in.

NEW SYSTEM OF CONTROL.

Finally the budget law accomplishes a radical change in the system of examination and audit of all governmental expenditures. At present the administrative branch of the government audits its own accounts. The auditors never have aspired to do more than to be sure that expenditures were authorized by laws—that there was no illegal expenditure of money. They have never ventured to concern themselves with the propriety of expenditures or with any other thoughts related to efficiency and economy.

The budget law changes this system. It provides for a general accounting office, independent of the administrative officials, headed by a Comptroller General of the United States. This office will take over all the duties now performed by the auditors of the Treasury and other departments. The Comptroller General will enjoy permanent tenure of office, unless removed by joint resolution of Congress, after notice and hearing. It will be his duty to give Congress information and counsel regarding the financial affairs of the government. He will review the manner of expending money authorized by Congress, and thus bring Congress into contact with the business of spending funds, in addition to the business of voting funds which it has heretofore performed.

This increased authority and enlarged status of the Comptroller General, it is believed, will make it unnecessary for Congress to order the many investigations deemed advisable in the past to ascertain what results have followed its appropriations. And this officer will always be ready to aid the new and enlarged committee of appropriations of the House in passing upon the merits of recommendations from the several executive departments.

All things considered, the new system is a system of business efficiency and coordination where nothing like it has existed heretofore. It adapts in the main the principles of fiscal administration and control which was introduced in the British government by the Exchequer and Audit Department Act of 1866. When the Bureau of the Budget presents its first budget sheet, which will be for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1922, it will be possible, with a little study, for the average citizen to comprehend what the government has done and what it proposes to do. The affairs of the government will be brought within the understanding of all persons who care to understand. This will be an epochal advance in representative government.

A TRUE RING.

The delegates to the convention of the American Federation of Labor in Denver have rejected, by an overwhelming vote, a proposal to amend the Constitution taking the power to declare war away from Congress and subjecting it to a referendum vote of the people. In such action as this unionized labor shows its sound judgment and a faithfulness to the idea of representative government that saves it from falling into the hands of radical plotters.

Organized labor has by this action also demonstrated that it will not succumb to the intrigue of the most powerful propaganda unless in its judgment that propaganda has merit. The agitation for a referendum on war declarations originated in pro-German motives. Later it was exploited for the political advantage of a certain few individuals. All along it had the support of the pacifists, the so-called conscientious objectors, the politicians and the revolutionary radicals.

Considerable capital would be won for the movement, it was thought, if unionized labor could be induced to endorse it. But American labor has rejected it.

One of the occasional vices of human nature is the belief on the part of some men that they must be ridiculous in order to attract attention to themselves and their business. For example here is the delegate to convention of optometrists who declares that California is no place for blonde girls—the sunshine is so hard on their blue eyes. If men put as much time on searching for the truth as they give to the invention and utterance of assinnities, the millennium would be much nearer at hand.

Some European statesmen are showing a strong attachment to the idea that it would be a good thing to unite with the United States in trying to solve some of the economic and financial problems of the world. Maybe they are right, but there will have to be in the ceremony a line containing something about "Love, honor and repay."

If President Obregon continues obdurate, let it be hoped that he will find that the United States government has adopted a Mexican policy that is a policy.

The news that far-bearing animals are becoming scarce makes one wonder why so many furs are worn in the hottest days of summer.

NOTES and COMMENT

Government ownership of railroads is favored by the Federation of Labor, but a hundred million or so of Americans are likely to remember what happened when the Government did own them to all intents and purposes. It is almost certain that government ownership of these utilities is not as near a realization as it was before the war.

San Francisco has come out ahead of Los Angeles in at least one matter. An increase in the price of gas as to both cities was recently allowed by the Railroad Commission. Los Angeles was raised three cents, and San Francisco only two.

Forest theatricals among the redwoods of Big Basin, an annual celebration which was inaugurated by the Forest Play Association, will be omitted this year. The public is not sufficiently interested to make the financing of it a success. And more's the pity, for these Druidic performances are characteristic of California, no other State being equipped by nature to produce them.

A new slant is given reckless auto driving in the case where one drove his machine into a Berkeley electro-fitter and then recked it against a tree. A patrolman took him in custody and laid a charge against him such as might naturally be expected. But the patrolman was mistaken. The next morning the driver explained that he was suffering from a sunstroke.

The Red Bluff News guarantees a clear field: "We hasten to assure the government that when it gets ready to erect that Federal building in Red Bluff the municipal band, that has squatted on the premises, will move off without a protest."

The Senate balks at one proposition to probe. It has been urged to investigate the mine strike in West Virginia, and for some reason is not interested. Considering the readiness to probe things in general, this is not quite understandable.

Washington Vanderlip's claim that he is the recipient of two port concessions from the Russian Soviet government suggests the "bulletin traveler" who blew in and bought the courthouse from a complaisant stranger for almost nothing.

Observation from the San Jose Mercury-Herald: "When a man is killed the newspapers have black headlines on the first page; but when one is born, a far more important event, there are three lines about it buried in the classified ads."

The heading reads that Admiral Sims is "back in Washington, quiet and smiling." The Admiral is considerably noted for permitting the other fellows to worry.

Business appears to be lively in that line of the head which the government finds on its hands and doesn't need on account of the war being over, whatever complaint is made regarding it in other circles. The prices paid for it originally may have accounted for the flush times then, but the cut in prices may have something to do with the unsatisfactory merchandising conditions now.

Democratic concession from the Woodland Democrat: "Everybody must concede Mr. Taft's physical ability to fill the seat made vacant by the death of the late Justice White."

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

The United States is scandalizing itself before the world by delaying the conclusion of peace. There is no valid excuse for dallying longer. Peace formally should have been made long ago, so that this nation and other countries could settle down to the activities of peace.—Long Beach Press.

BURNING THE LAST BARRIER.
The news that Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey has introduced a bill into the Senate in which it is proposed to furnish the public with accurate information about the coal industry must naturally be viewed with alarm by every patriotic American citizen.
We have become fairly accustomed to disclosure. Business privacy is almost altogether a thing of the past. The one thing that we have relied upon never to be known is the inside of the coal industry.
If we are now to be informed why we pay a dollar a ton more for coal one month than we do in another, why it costs six or seven times as much as a ton of coal is worth at the mines to get it anywhere at all, why a poor person who can buy it only by the bucketful and pay cash has to pay about twice as much as the rich who get it by the ton and pay when they feel like it, why miners appear to be working only when there is plenty of coal and to be laid off when there isn't—if all these mysteries and many more are going to be explained then nobody is safe.
But if these gentlemen who are about to give us this information really intend to say it, one may mildly express the hope that they will not say it with state.—New York Tribune.

THE MOTHER'S HARD LOT.
An Atchison woman is criticised because she does not spank her daughter who is a runaway. Berkeley Tax Rate
Estimated At $1.58
BERKELEY, June 24. — Charles Bartlett, Commissioner of Revenue and Finance, today at a meeting of the city council submitted a tentative budget to be considered by the council, in which the tax rate for the coming fiscal year was fixed at $1.58, the same as last year. The tax rate was apportioned as follows by Commissioner Bartlett: $1 for the general fund; library, 10 cents (one cent more than last year); schools, 35 cents; interest on bonds, 13 cents (one cent less than last year).

GRAY IS NOT HOPEFUL IN TAX FIGHT

Application to Permit City to Assess S. P. Depot Site On Franklin Street As Non-Operative Is Given to State

Returning today after a session before the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento concerning Oakland's contention that certain public service corporation properties in Oakland are non-operative and should be taxed by the city, Assistant City Attorney Leon Gray asserted today that the outlook is not very promising.

"We took up the Fourteenth and Franklin depot question at yesterday's session," said Gray, "and I believe we should have some verdict by July 28. The Southern Pacific witnesses stated that there is no real need for a depot, but it was only kept here to attend to the desultory business. If there is no need for a depot, perhaps the property might all be classed as non-operative, but this question seems to be running around in circles.

"Cancel the new member of the board, seemed to be favorable to Oakland's contention that unused properties should be subject to local taxation. He asserted that he believed we ought to have our way in this matter which will mean several million dollars in assessable property added to Oakland but others on the board seemed less agreeable. We expect no more hearings for some time if at all. Now we will await the verdict."

STUDENTS OF U. C. HELD UP AT MANILA

Twenty-two Who Sailed As Members of Creole State's Crew Detained While Alleged Tampering Probe On

Twenty-two University of California students members of the crew, and others aboard the Creole State, owned by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, are held up at Manila, according to advices received here today while an investigation is under way of reports of supposed tampering with the engine of the liner. The students, signed as members of the ship's crew recently when a union crew could not be secured.

William Dunlevy, second engineer of the vessel, was placed under arrest yesterday in connection with an alleged attempt to inquire the steamer's engine dispatches from Manila today stated. Other arrests are expected to be made late today. Tampering with the engine of the ship's crew could not be secured.

In announcing the arrest of Dunlevy and predicting that additional men would be taken into custody, the Shipping commission declared that they expected to succeed in determining who was responsible for the attempt.

The steamer with the University students aboard is being held at Manila indefinitely according to the commission. The Creole State sailed from San Francisco on May 13 and experienced trouble from the start. The day after the liner sailed for the Orient with a non union crew it was reported that there was trouble aboard, and she would return to San Francisco, but the ship kept on her course.

Evidence that her machinery had been tampered with was apparently discovered during the voyage, but was disclosed to the public for the first time when she landed in Honolulu, June 3. Three machinists were put to work to repair damage done to the steering gear, refrigerating apparatus, and other mechanical parts. The vessel cleared from that port shortly afterward and continued her voyage to Manila, where it was found that every piece of machinery had been tampered with and deposited in the ball bearings of her engines.

Just Folk

by Edgar A. Guest

BRAVE

Brave is an easy word, and yet
It is not easy to be brave;
One must be patient and forget
The sorrow of the grave.

When every hope is blown away
By cruel winds and chill,
Above the ashes of dismay
Must smile unconquered will.

Not is this all of bravery,
For hearts have much to bear
And there are deeds men never see
Which call for courage rare.

And there are many things to fear
Along the path of men.

(Copyright, 1921, by Edgar A. Guest)

The undeserved and cruel sneer
From thoughtless voice and pen.

Can you be constant for the right
When you might quickly buy
Success and ease and its delight
By living out a lie?

A brave man not alone by fire
Or conflict meets the test,
He must forego his own desire,
To stand for what is best.

The truth oft asks a heavy price
From men who walk its way,
And its harsh terms of sacrifice
Only the brave will pay.

Daily ALMANAC

by Ad. Schuster

FRIDAY, JUNE 24.

Midsummer Day. It was either in 1494 or 1497, the historians quarrel over it, that John and Sebastian Cabot discovered Labrador. William Hull, the Revolutionary general who was condemned to death for surrendering Detroit, was born in 1753. Henry Ward Beecher, inventor of the first "Go West" propaganda, was born on this day in 1813.

SUNSET

Old summer spreads the burlen on our hills
Where once was flung the rippled velvet green,
A purple mist the hollow spaces fills
And warms the heart with tremble in the sheen.
The white fleet of the fox comes in the gate
And rides from all the corners of the sky;
The shadows rise and leave in lone estate
The grape-hued peaks that shake their folds and die.
A world that slowly melts out of June
Has time and whim to grace each parting day—
Till stars invoke the magic of the moon
To lay a path for dreams across the bay!

TO A GOPHER IN MY GARDEN

You've been up by roses,
You've been down by lilylocks,
Id'k' you're there the delinquent
Cud' do lo'ger do your stales;
Bud your evil deceptions
I'll forgid id'ceendish glee
I'll forgid id'ceendish glee
I'll forgid id'ceendish glee
So you'll swaver just like m'be.
—H. A. CHEW.

COOLER WEATHER BROUGHT HIM OUT.
Dear Sir: Have you any friends who try to be high-browish and who tell the world they don't like the music of the circus calliope? (How do YOU pronounce it?) Is there a chance, dear A. B.

S. that they are serious?—Your Admirer Back Again.
I know folks who say they don't like the calliope (I've called it "cally-ope" since I was four), but, mostly, they are no friends of mine.

And our own Western folk—
Back there it's poison ivy
And out here it's poison oak.

Another difference comes to mind.

Back there they sneeze with hay fever,
While here they sneeze with rose.

The COUNTRY of UPSIDE DOWN

By Jack Burroughs

Chapter VI

The Bashful Policeman

The Duckess waited politely until her husband had finished reciting Josiah Jingle-Jangle's poem about his imaginary appetite and then she said:
"If you intend to visit with us very long, your better come to the little house beside the Duck Pond."

Alex followed Reddy and the Duckess and they led him into a park to where a little red house with green trimmings stood on the bank of a pond. It was a large pond and hundreds of ducks were swimming about among the lily pads and rushes. As Alex drew nearer he saw that the ducks all wore one-piece bathing suits.

"Excuse us for a little while," Alex said Reddy. "The Duckess and I are going in for a little swim."

Along the shore of the duck pond was a row of tiny bath houses where ducks changed their clothes when they went in swimming. When Reddy donned his swimming suit he wore his captain's cap—the one he had put on in the one-way elevator. The Duckess kept on her little starched sunbunnet.

While his two companions went for a swim Alex sat down on a bench to rest. As he sat there he saw a policeman coming down the gravel path that bordered the pond. The policeman had hold of the back of his own neck and was hitting himself with his club.

"Hurry up, now," said the policeman to himself. "Will you go to jail or not?"

"I'll go to jail willingly enough," replied the policeman, still talking to himself. "But I do wish you wouldn't spank me with that big club of yours."

Just then the policeman caught sight of Alex and he stopped, resting himself long enough to come up and speak to him.

He approached the bench very bashfully, and with his eyes down, like an ashamed little boy who has been naughty before company.

When he had come close to Alex he thrust one finger into his mouth and began scolding the gravel path with the tip of his toe.

"What is it, Mister Policeman?" Alex asked in his kindest tones.

"Er—ah—er—would you mind—er—keeping on the grass for a while?" stammered the policeman, twisting the tail of his long blue coat.

"Keep ON the grass?" cried Alex. "Why do you want me to keep ON the grass?"

The policeman blushed and pointed to a nearby sign. Alex looked at the sign's reflection in his pocket mirror and read:

"KEEP ON THE GRASS."

"Would you—er—mind keeping on the grass for a second or two—just long enough to—er—obey the sign?" begged the Bashful Policeman.

For reply Alex walked over and stood on the grass for half a minute.

The policeman thanked him and started arresting himself once again. As he gripped the back of his neck and belabored himself with his club, he said:

I've traveled around on Noisy Sound
And the Damp-and-Soggy Ocean;
I've leaped my hands in many lands
To keep my arms in motion.
I've tucked the nose of a wild, wild
That bloomed by the Sizzling Sea,
Yet life seemed gray till that happy day
When Myself arrested Me.

I've stepped the wrist of an amethyst
Till it turned an emerald green;
I've boxed the ears of the granddies
As they marched through the Grenadine.
I've traveled blocks to unwind clocks
When they ran too rapidly
But these were naught (or so I thought)
When Myself arrested Me.

I've raised the lid of a pyramid
At Ramesses to wink;
I've gone for a swim in the River
Xerxes-for-gods-sake (*).
And screamed for fear I'd sink.
Whatever that may be,
But joys like these had made me sneeze
When Myself arrested Me.

Cry on Geraldine's Shoulder

Listen, World!

The more I learn about savages the more I am convinced that civilization is largely a question of wearing pants. It shouldn't be so, of course. Civilization should promote justice, honesty, chastity, temperance and neighborliness. It should make us more glad to be alive and more helpful to the other fellow. It should smooth out and simplify life. But does it? On close analysis I fear it doesn't. It seems to have merely promoted a large misunderstanding about savagery. Savages were supposed to be violent, man-eating monsters, peevish at home and ram-bunctious abroad. Do you remember your thrills when you first heard of the Cannibal Isles? How glad you were that you had a lock on the front door and ate only cow steak instead of the human variety. Though you did wonder how that fat, cross old lady around the corner would taste.

But come to find out, that was all propaganda stuff. Savages were murdering the coy but kindly cannibal. At times he did eat his enemies, to be sure, but on the other hand, he never gassed them nor foreclosed mortgages on the widows. Also he kept his word, was sober, chaste and just. His civilization came along, barring an occasional stimulating scrap, uncomplicated by either police courts or lawyers, his life was spent in loving, laughing, dancing and other rural pleasures. Nothing could have been more kindly or healthy. But—he didn't wear pants!

Well, we do. But otherwise—?

Jerry wishes to make an announcement to all the world. In answer to the letter from L. Y. L. A. in which he bitterly criticized the morals and affections of the American girls, Jerry writes in reply:

"Some of these girls have been printed. It is impossible to print all. But since some of these replies hurt many of you, I wish to offer an explanation. Their replies to L. Y. L. A. many of the writers not only lauded the American girl, but they compared the girls of other nations with her. I am sure that those who write for me are not at all dishonest, that there are just as many sweet, pure girls in other countries as there are in America. And I wish to assure you all that had L. Y. L. A. attacked the girls of ANY nation as he did those of America, Jerry's defense would have been just as fervent. The honor of ALL good women is sacred in this column and I hereby hold out my hand to those of EVERY land.

David was led by lust into sin, but when he confessed and repented, God said to him, 'David is a man after My own heart.'

Many, many more promises are there for those who care to look for them, but, alas, that many people are very shy when it comes to looking at the religious side of a question, so it is not well to more than hint at a few of the wonderful promises of the Bible to those who turn to God.

If he is a reasonable man I would also advise him to have a straight talk with his companion and tell him all his heart. If God can forgive, he surely can, especially as she is no worse than he, and it is the right thing to do. Perhaps he has felt all these years the need of forgiveness, too.

There is nothing like a good heart to heart talk to clear the mind and set the conscience free. Confessions are made and promises given, a great weight will be lifted from the heart of each and they will forget the past and live in the future. The command to 'Love thy neighbor' was given that we might forget self, while doing for others, and if one does with the heart, who can blame him to do in that line there will be no time to wonder if our past is forgiven.

MRS. M. R. M.

Dear Geraldine: Just thought I would write an answer to Mrs. R. P. McRoberts. First of all I think she is too good for this world. It is nothing grand for these women who have been sheltered all their lives to tell about how good they are. It's the ones that are knocked around and are tempted and in the end find out that their own hearts are not so good as they thought.

I suppose this Mrs. McRoberts calls herself a Christian woman. If only she would read a helping hand to the women who have sinned but have repented, this world would be a much happier place. Now don't you think so, Jerry? If you print this and she reads it she will say 'Oh, it's from another little bum,' but I should worry. If she had only gone through one-half what I have she would change her views a lot.

I know that I am much happier than her right now.

I have two lovely children and a husband who has proved to me that all men are not alike, and that there are men big and fine enough to overlook a young girl's mistake when she tells him she wants to be his wife. He has been married four years, and there have been an awful lot of these Mrs. R. P. McRoberts trying to cause trouble, but thank God, my husband is broad-minded. He loves me, and he is one of the few who thinks what is all right for one, is for the other, and if a girl makes a mistake and is honest enough to confess to her husband he should respect her all the more and love her all the more for telling, so that is proof enough of her love for him and her wish to go straight. I hope Tom tells his chum to do that by his wife, as a girl suffers enough without others helping.

Well, Jerry dear, I have written enough and hope you will be able to print it. Love to you, Jerry, and keep up the good work.

Welcome to Our City

By Ring W. Lardner

Fred A. Cross, city detective, who, with his wife, Grace, has left the joys of a city apartment for the joys of a suburban home, is writing to his brother, Charles.

Allison, Ill., July 8.
Brother Charley, well Charley every thing going a long smooth & last wk. I paid the 1st int. on my lone down to the bank and now I don't have to worry a bout that again until Jan. It looks like you dont run up again the real estate agent youve got it all build. The babies is a hole lot better than they was in the city. That is they would be if the house wasnt damp & it is wasent for the smell of the paint that I guess we aint never going to get rid of it. But they aint all cooped up like they was in Chi & now they can get out & run a round with out no danger of falling under a st. car & getting there leg cut off. By a st. car.

Adele Garrison's New Phase
REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

The Message Rita Brown Left for Madge.

"You are sure, Madge?" Leila asked quaveringly.

I drew a quick breath of relief. The victory was won! I smiled down at the tense little face, uplifted to mine, and forgave her the folly of listening to Rita Brown's falsehoods in my joy that Alfred Durkee—faithful and loyal love—need not suffer the pain of knowing how gross his little sweetheart had doubted his honesty and love.

"As sure as I am that you need a switching more than any bad child I know," I answered emphatically. "You will come to me yourself when the two years are up, and say humbly, 'You were right, oh, gracious sage! I thank you for your wisdom. You little goose!' I added tenderly, as her lips quirked into a smile, while the tears were yet on her lashes. "No wonder Alfred adores you. You are the prettiest girl in town. You need a little beauty treatment just now, so lie down while I prescribe for you."

I pushed her back on her pillows, replaced the basin of cool water on the chair by her bed, and put some small towels over the back of the chair.

REITA'S VEILED THREAT.
"Now," I said, practically, wringing out one of the towels and laying it across her eyelids, "as soon as that gets warm wrap up another and apply it. There's more cool water in the pitcher over there if you need it, but you won't. This treatment will banish the tear marks from

of her love for him and her wish to go straight. I hope Tom tells his chum to do that by his wife, as a girl suffers enough without others helping.

Well, Jerry dear, I have written enough and hope you will be able to print it. Love to you, Jerry, and keep up the good work.

Opposition Shown to Alien Tax Law

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—A number of Italian residents have refused to register under the new alien poll tax law, according to a report from registrars. The claim is that they will not register on the ground that the law was class registration. The refusal is said to be an attempt to have the law tested in San Francisco or Sacramento courts.

No trouble has come from Japanese quarters. Nearly all have registered in this vicinity without protest.

The book of Job is absolutely unique in the Old Testament in that the hero is not a Jew.

Eight Workmen Are Prostrated by Heat

PETALUMA, June 24.—Eight workmen were prostrated during the hot spell here this week. Five mechanics engaged in the construction of the Petaluma Development building, on Kentucky street, collapsed on account of the heat and from drinking too much ice-cold water. Three workmen on the Lakeville highway construction succumbed to the heat and were removed to their homes.

MAN SURRENDERS BEFORE RAID ON CLUB IS STARTED

San Francisco Police Plan An Investigation of "Leak" in Department.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Police Captain Charles Goff was conducting an investigation today as to the origin of a "tip" received last night, just as detectives were planning a raid on the Phoenix club, an alleged gambling resort. John J. Ryan, said to be proprietor of the club, was represented by his attorney, John J. Taaffe, who went to the police station and surrendered Ryan after a warrant had been sworn out for his arrest, previous to the raid. When the police arrived at the establishment they found two men playing checkers.

According to Captain Goff, Ryan knew the raid was to be held almost immediately after plans were made. While he declared he knew the source of the "leak," he failed to disclose it. With the raid a failure, Ryan was charged with conducting a gambling game at the place on May 20.

"If you've got a little home, you'd better get rid of it," Taaffe is said to have shouted to Captain Goff, "because I'm going to sue you for all you've got."

Letters had been received by police from wives and mothers to the effect that gambling for large sums of money was being conducted at the Phoenix club.

GUILTY OF MURDER. LOS ANGELES, June 23.—Raymond W. Smith was found guilty on a charge of first degree murder by a jury here last night, after seven hours' deliberation. Life imprisonment was recommended. Sentence will be pronounced Monday morning.

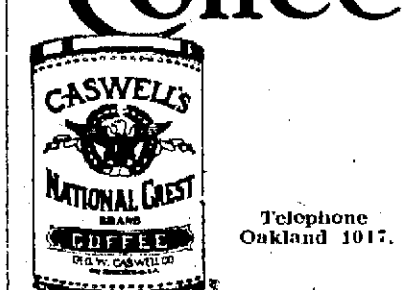

Smith was tried in connection with the death by poison here March 13 of his wife, Mary E. Smith.

CHURCH OPPOSES BLUE LAWS. MANHATTAN, N. Y., June 24.—About 1200 members of the Seventh Day Adventist denomination of North Dakota, in convention here, adopted a resolution memorializing Congress to oppose passage of any legislation which would revive Sunday blue laws.

Plans Are Completed for Tribune's Big Show Tomorrow

Every Boy and Girl, Mothers Too, Are Invited to Theater.

All plans have been completed for the TRIBUNE'S Aunt Elsie and 500-club at the American theater tomorrow morning. The show is free to every boy and girl reader of the Aunt Elsie kiddie page and all their mothers who care to come, too. A splendid program has been arranged, including moving pictures and an up-to-date juvenile entertainment. The curtain goes up at 9:30 sharp, so be on hand early with your most pleasant smile for the show.

The program in full is: Picture, "Hands Off," featuring Tom Mix. (This picture will be on the regular program at the American in the near future.)

TRIBUNE'S Juvenile program: Mildred Mizman, violin solos. Bernice Blundin in song and dance number, "Typical Tipperary."

"A Little Bit of China," and "Splash Me," a double number, with Bernice Claire Jahngin and her little dancing and singing chorus, consisting of the following clever kiddies: Dorothy Burke, Adele Leahy, Katherine Matthews, Shirley Ives, Barbara Aldrich and Phyllis Ford. Lovely Cavanaugh in Russian dance.

Alberta Blair in new song hits, "Tita Bit of Doll" and "Naughty."

A few minutes with Aunt Elsie of the TRIBUNE. "California Sweethearts," featuring Betty Jane Teeple and Violet Taylor.

Josephine de Pasquale in late song hit, "Peggy."

Annabel McCloskey, in dance specialty, "Joy & Mirth" Ballot Box. Bernice Jahngin as Joy, Alberta Blair as Mirth.

John Wharry Lewis in "Follow Me."

RIGA, Latvia, June 24.—Recent arrivals from Moscow declare that the little-known how close the Soviet Russia is pushing its friendship with the Near East.

In Moscow the Turkish legation now occupies one of the most sumptuous palaces of the city and the personnel, garbed in faultless European clothes, presents a strange contrast to the poorly garbed Muscovites.

Near East delegations also occupy luxurious quarters, give elaborate banquets and otherwise carry on with the pomp of the old Eastern courts.

Members of Lenin's government are frequently guests at these affairs and entertain the legation personnel as equals.

Besides this, Lenin has so accommodated himself to the psychology of the East that he now speaks the language of the rulers of Turkey, Persia, etc., as did the rulers of ancient days.

A Moscow despatch today reads like a paragraph from what might have been an ancient tablet of hieroglyphics describing the visit of a Babylon envoy to King Cyrus of Persia.

The so-called Bolshevism in these Eastern countries is nothing at all like the Bolshevism of Moscow, but in each case the Russian agitators have a distinct brand of propaganda designed to dovetail with ancient customs of the country in question.

For instance, in regions where the trade in bazaars is a century old custom, no agitation, against free trade has been made.

Decision 147 was handed down recently after various railroads had petitioned for wage reductions. The cut at that time amounted to 12 per cent and the new order, extending the scope of the original decision, will make a similar slash to the lines not included in the original order.

The new order, it is understood, will differ from the original decision in that it will assess reductions for other classes of labor not covered by the first decision.

SUSPECTED FORGER TAKEN. MARTINEZ, June 24.—Deputy Sheriff Dixie Joslin will probably leave tomorrow for San Antonio, Tex., to secure Roy Williams, wanted here on a charge of forgery and who was arrested in the Texas city last week. Williams is accused of having forged the name of Joe Merrick to checks and to have cashed them at the bank.

Many persons of a few decades ago believed the talons of the giant crab spider, set in gold and used as toothpicks, possessed an occult virtue to cure toothache.

GOOD HEALTH BEGINS WITH PERFECT TEETH

Money Spent on Dependable Dentistry Is An Investment in Good Health

"Today there is no need of anyone having decayed or defective teeth—no need of anyone fearing dentistry, because the modern methods of today are dependable, safe and painless," we are told by Dr. R. C. Anderson, well known dentist, with offices at 1225 Broadway. "In this office we use the X-Ray Radiograph in diagnosing every case—learning beforehand exactly what is to be done to improve the condition of your teeth and health."

OAKLAND MAN LOSES TEETH. "When Ernest Seely lost control of the automobile he was driving recently, and collided with a fence, the only injuries sustained were the loss of five teeth, and others chipped or damaged, necessitating immediate attention. Mr. Seely was at once recommended to Dr. Anderson."

"He replaced the missing teeth with gold bridged and inlays, substituting porcelain teeth for gold in the teeth that could be seen. Mr. Seely is a traveling salesman for the Paragon Company, and resides at 2445 Telegraph avenue. In sending a check to this office he enclosed with it a note explaining how well pleased he was with the work and offering to testify at any time as to the merits of dentistry performed by Dr. Anderson."

"Too many of us neglect our teeth, willingly permitting them to rot and decay and ruin our health," continued Dr. Anderson. "The great lesson you must learn now is that your teeth cannot last forever, and the better care you give them today the better they will keep for future years and preserve your good health accordingly."

"A record of a quarter of a century of modern dental methods and experience prompts me to warn you that your teeth need inspection at least twice a year.—Advertisement."

Little ADELE LEAHY, clever member of the TRIBUNE'S Juvenile Troupe, is one of the little chorus girls in the act, "A Little Bit of China."

SCULPTOR BACKS DOCTOR'S TEST ON CHILD PATERNITY

Haig Patigian Makes Study and Declares Del Secco Boy Is Sorine's Son.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The weight of artistic opinion was added to the contention of Dr. Albert Abrams, blood specialist, today when Haig Patigian, sculptor and president of the Bohemian club, in an official communication to Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham, declared that Eugene Del Secco was the legitimate son of Julius Sorine. Mrs. Del Secco, former wife of Sorine and the boy's mother, who is fighting for custody of the boy, declared in court, that Sorine was not her son's father and son. Although Patigian stated that he would not take oath as to authenticity of his deductions, he firmly believed that the two were father and son.

For the past week Patigian has been making a physical study of Sorine and the "Del Secco child" in his studio and in his official report he gives seven reasons why he believes that Sorine is the father of the boy.

Judge Graham is in the East on a vacation at present, and the effect of the report on the case could not be learned today. However, Mrs. Mamie Del Secco, mother of the child, today firmly declared that Sorine was not the boy's father despite efforts of scientists to prove otherwise.

Autoist Laughs Self Into Fine of $15

STOCKTON, June 24.—Henry Wilfley sat in Judge Parker's court and heard a fine of $250 imposed for a minor infraction of the motor vehicle act. He soon demonstrated that "he who laughs last, laughs best." He sneered a sarcastic snicker and a broad smile spread over his face.

The judge heard and saw. He leaned over the desk and said: "Pardon me, but did I say $250? I meant $15."

The smile faded.

Lodi High School Magazine Issued

LODI, June 24.—Today, the annual magazine issued by Lodi high school, is out, brighter and larger than ever. It is dedicated to Miss Maud H. Davis, teacher of mathematics. The prize story, "The Price of Service," is by a sophomore, Bessie Closson, and the prize poem, "Values," by Ruth Montgomery, a junior. Miss Jessie Lauchland is again the designer of the cover. She is a senior.

Business Men's Club Discusses Factories

Because the speaker of the day, Fred D. Parr, could not make arrangements to speak to the Mutual Business Men's club at its luncheon at the Hotel Oakland, the luncheon resolved itself into a get-together meeting. C. C. Cooper, president, presided. Matters pertaining to the future of the financial and industrial outlook in the Eastbay were discussed.

Lodi Boy Scouts On Yosemite Trip

LODI, June 24.—Lodi Boy Scouts, members of troop No. 1, are in the Yosemite, word of their successful arrival having just been received here from the leader. Rev. Smith sends word that the boys made the long hike in good condition and are enjoying the outing and camping trip to the utmost.

Legislation Fails to Reform, Pastor Says

Declaring that the failure of legislation to bring about better social conditions throughout the country had placed the burden of the job upon the shoulders of the church, A. F. Webb, pastor of the Fruitvale Christian church, told the members of the Optimists' Club at the organization's luncheon today that future changes to be made in social conditions would have to be brought about by the churches. He declared that legislation measures taken by laws had been a complete failure.

"Christianity," he said, "teaches the people how to live, how to live together, and how to live for each other. Our laws have failed to do this."

They are very easy to make. Just follow these directions:

Pineapple Turnovers
First make a plain pastry dough; roll it thin and cut into 4-inch squares. Drain a can of Crushed or Grated Hawaiian Pineapple, saving the juice for thickens or sauce. On each square put a large spoonful of pineapple, a small bit of butter and a spoonful of granulated sugar. Fold the squares into triangles, pinching the edges firmly together so they will not come apart in cooking; fry in deep lard and serve warm, dusted with powdered sugar.

With Hawaiian Crushed or Grated Pineapple there are any number of tempting dishes you can make, sherbets, salads, puddings, pies, and sauces.

Buy this convenient fruit, at your grocer's, in half dozen or dozen lots, and send for our recipe book containing many ways to serve it.

At the soda fountain ask for a Pineapple Sundae.

JIM BARNES TURNS IN LOW SCORE IN ST. ANDREWS COMPETITION

RACING PIGEONS BEING TUNED UP FOR SEATTLE TO OAKLAND TRIBUNE DERBY NEXT MONTH

The Sperry Flour Company hand-cup, which was flown Sunday over the 500-mile course from Salem, Ore., to this city, was the worst "smash" the members of the Pacific Homing Pigeon Club have ever encountered.

Of the 150 birds that were liberated in the Oregon city, only eight have been reported home to date, although stragglers will be expected to drift in from day to day.

The first bird to report was from the loft of George Matthews, while the second, a bird named "Smash," was reported by a good start.

The telegram which was received next morning stated that the racing pigeons got away to a good start, 4:15 a. m. with weather calm and clear, but another storm was encountered by aerial messengers in the vicinity of the Siskiyou mountains, and this is probably the reason that the birds are delayed on their homeward journey.

The final race of the 1921 Bird Derby will be flown from Seattle, Wash., to this city, July 2, when the long distance race horses of the air will compete in the annual TRIBUNE derby. The course over which the racing pigeons will fly, is approximately 700 miles long, will be in competition for the challenge trophy donated by The Oakland TRIBUNE for this event.

The TRIBUNE derby is probably one of the hardest races that is competed for in the United States, and will be watched with great interest by fanciers all over the country, as this year the finest birds on the Coast will be entered in this famous race.

H. T. Gwilym, secretary of the Seattle Racing Pigeon Club, will have charge of the liberation of the birds in the TRIBUNE derby, and the local fanciers are jubilant over the fact that they were able to obtain the services of Mr. Gwilym, who is a past master in the Racing Pigeon game.

Lieutenant McAtee of the United States Naval Air Force, reports that at one of the largest seaplane stations recently, two pilots, while on aerial patrol, ran into a severe storm at sea, and while endeavoring to make a dash for the home base, the plane was forced to land on the water, and the plane crashed into the water.

Although the altitude was not great, the craft struck the water at a bad angle, and the crashing of the machine and the ripping of fabric told the occupants that they were in a bad fix, but they were relieved of the supreme tension when their machine was temporarily buoyed up by the wings of their ship.

With the first sense of relief their thoughts turned to the pigeons, which were hastily fished out of the water in a half-drowned condition, their bodies shivering with the cold. While a message was being written describing their position at sea, one of the officers wrapped the pigeons in his warm wool muffler, which was dry. The moments which decided whether the feathered heroes would live or die seemed hours to those who lived upon the issue, but finally the birds strengthened sufficiently to be released with the message.

While the officers at the base were at the mess table, the bell suddenly tinkled in the loft, which denoted the arrival of the pigeon, and the bird was found worn out from exhaustion in the trap.

Twenty miles out at sea the dusk was settling over the men huddled on the floating seaplane, which threatened to go down with every gust of wind. Then out of the gloom came the sound of a motor-boat and as the siren of the vessel tooted, an answer came from the seaplane, and all-American. Without the aid of these homing pigeons there is little doubt but that all the men would have perished.

Tuesday was women's invitation day at Claremont, but the present spell of warm weather kept the usual large turn out away, and only a few of the more enthusiastic players teed off.

Jack Hutchinson's feat of holing the 8th in one and the 9th in two at St. Andrews yesterday was eagerly discussed by local golf fans yesterday. The little golfing marvel's tee shot at the 8th was in and out of the cup and left him less than a foot from the hole for a two. The 9th hole at St. Andrews slightly resembles the 11th at Del Monte with whims and bunkers replacing the trees.

At Sequoyah today the women are holding a flag tournament. Over fifty cards were sent out by Mrs. Waterman and her energetic assistants. The planting of the flags in their various locations adds a little humor to the otherwise most serious of games.

Harvard and Yale Both Win Boat Race

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 24.—Yale drew first blood in her annual regatta with Harvard today. The Blue freshmen defeated the Harvard crew in the two-mile race, from the navy yard to Red Top.

Harvard evened up the score by coming right back and winning the junior varsity race—also a two-mile affair. Harvard's junior crew won in easy fashion, finishing six lengths ahead of Yale.

The Varsity race will start this evening at 5 o'clock.

NEW YORK.—Tom Campbell, star middle distance runner of Yale University, will enter the national A. U. championships at Pasadena, Cal., July 22, he announced here today.

Bobby Jones Tears Up His Card at 11th

Youthful Star Disgusted At Own Playing, Quits Tournament

By FRANK CARRUTHERS, Editor of Golf Illustrated, Special Correspondent of the International News Service.

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 24.—Bobby Jones, the youthful Atlanta, Ga., amateur golfing star, dropped out of the British open tournament today when his playing was dumped. Jones disgustedly tore up his card at the eleventh hole on today's play. He was hopelessly behind at the time and stood no chance of winning.

Jim Barnes, veteran New Yorker, went into the lead when he turned in a card of 74 for a total of 222. The American contingent, however, has a great chance of winning the British title through the medium of Jack Hutchinson or Jim Barnes. These two players began the final stages of the tourney today with everything in their favor and the chance of their winning was admittedly better than that of any pair of British players.

Tom Kerrigan of New York also played a round in 72 and his total was 226. George McLean, with 82 total, 231, and Charley Hoffman of Philadelphia, with 77, had a card of 228. Other cards were: John Burgess, 81-254; Dr. Paul Hunter, 76-229.

By CHAS. McCANN, United Press Staff Correspondent.

ST. ANDREWS, June 24.—Jim Barnes, Palham, was tied with two others today for the lead in the British open golf championship, at the end of the third round. Barnes scored a 74 today for a total of 222, tying with Alex. Herd, Great Britain.

Barnes has played the most consistent golf in the tournament, with a 74 for each of the three rounds. He went ahead of Jack Hutchinson today, the latter taking a 79 for the round.

C. Hoffman, Philadelphia, had a card of 77 for a total of 228. J. Burgess, Asheville, went around in 81, making his total 224.

Herd's score was 73 today.

Ardolf Massey, French professional champion, followed Barnes and Herd, with a total of 222.

Other American scores in the third round included:

Walter Hagen, 72; total, 225.

W. McIlhenny, 75; total, 230.

In the final round, Tom Kerrigan turned in the first American card, with 72 for a total of 298. Dr. Hunter made it in 78, for a total final score of 307.

Jack Hutchinson, British golfer, was the leader among the first few to finish, with a score of 71 and a total of 298.

Jack Hutchinson turned in a card of 70, shortly after Wethered finished, tying him for low in the final rounds, with a total of 298.

Jack showed vast improvement in the afternoon round.

L. A. Jarnes, a pitcher on the ineligible list of the Buffalo Club for jumping, recently pitched a no-hit no-run game for an independent team in Oklahoma against some other independent team. Fans in the Oklahoma town want to know if such a thing ever was done before. Yes, but possibly not by a contract jumper.

Admits Scots Know Golf

By Viscount Northcliffe

(Copyright, 1921, by United Press.)

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 24.—Beautiful St. Andrews is the place where the canny Scots successfully hid the game of golf more than five long centuries until a few years ago when their English neighbors discovered it and passed it along to the rest of the world.

Picture to yourself something like Southampton, Long Island, with a background of mountains, a vast concourse composed mostly of people speaking the bpsan Scotch language so that the Americans and English can hardly understand them.

We cannot understand them, but I can assure you that these East Scot folks, miners, fishermen and farm hands, understand all about golf as your players will tell you when they get back.

The caddies do, too. They want their men to win and nobody else.

Viewed from London and New York, this is an international matter among competitors who are Americans, Australians, Scots, Englishmen, French and Spaniards.

But the whole community has only one wish. That is that your Jack Hutchinson, who won last year, but who has won fame and fortune in your land of opportunity, should win.

"Red" Ray, who narrowly escaped being slain in the elimination rounds, looked thoroughly drawn, worn and nervous when I found him lying on a sofa in the hotel before starting his round.

Yet at the time of his cabling, he has played wonderfully well.

F. Moran Boxed Johnson for Title

Sometime after he defeated Jeffries, Jack Johnson was indicted on charges of violating the Mann act, but he evaded arrest and finally journeyed to Paris.

When the ex-champ shivered a bit, he accepted a challenge from Frank Moran of Pittsburgh, and they faced one another in France on June 27, 1914. The Negro warrior scored a victory on points in 20 rounds.

Moran was game and stubbornly stood up to Johnson's assaults, which had not the steam of the champion's earlier attacks. Johnson possessed all of his old-time skill, however.

There was not a single knockdown nor anything that smacked of a finishing blow. Johnson's superior skill and his incessant up-percuting kept Moran in subjection. Moran's attack lacked the power to dispose of his adversary.

The crowd was as cosmopolitan as Paris itself. There were barons and dukes at the ring side, and earls and duchesses, too. Sporting men of many nations, clad in the formal evening garb with which Europe honors its boxers, were part of the throng.

Johnson was proud of his victory, for it was the first time that a champion as old as he had ever defended his title and won. He was then 36 years old. Moran's senior by almost a decade.

The referee of the fight was Georges Carpentier, who now aspires to become heavyweight champion by whipping Dempsey.

Four Players Are Left in N. W. Tourney

Golf Series Finals Are On Today's Program At Portland.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 24.—Third-round matches of the Pacific Northwest Amateur golf championships at the Waverly country club found the favorites of the titular tournament running true to form. As a result of yesterday's matches the semi-final round scheduled for today has a three-quarter Waverly complexion for H. Chandler Egan, Waverly, eliminated Clare Griswold of the Portland golf club one up on the 34th hole; Russell Smith, Waverly, disposed of Heinie Schmidt of the Grays Harbor golf and country club one up on the 34th hole, and Forest Watson, Waverly, defeated Dr. O. F. Willing, Waverly, three up and two to play, and David Bon Stein of the Seattle golf club, nine up and eight to play.

The semi-final round today will bring together Russell Smith and David Bon Stein of the Seattle golf club, while in the lower bracket H. Chandler Egan and Forest Watson will fight it out for the right to meet the winner of the Smith-Von Elm match.

Two of yesterday's matches were truly remarkable, going extra holes and found the participants playing the best golf not only of the tournament, but of any Pacific Coast tourney. It would be hard to distinguish between the Smith-Schmidt match and the Egan-Griswold tilt, for brilliant playing.

QUEER POSTPONEMENT.

Perhaps the strangest cause for postponement of a ball game in history developed in the Appalachian League last week. On June 7 the team of a murdered girl was found in the Kingsport ball park. Blood-murderer and she made a purchase of a $200 canoe, which she ordered shipped to "Friend Tris," in Kingsport, Tenn., for Tris Speaker.

A girl forger was arrested in St. Louis after trying to pass bad checks. At one sporting goods store she told that she was a banker's daughter from Hubbard, Tex., a friend of Tris Speaker and she made a purchase of a $200 canoe, which she ordered shipped to "Friend Tris," in Kingsport, Tenn., for Tris Speaker.

Part of Cleveland's celebration of the 125th anniversary of the founding of the city in July will be a ball game in which players who have made Cleveland famous will take part. Nap Lajoie is organizing a team of old-timers. Denton Young has agreed to pitch and announce that he is getting in shape at his farm near Paul, O.

Yes, Anastasia, that needle is called a tongue-tone stylus because it is used on a talking machine.

Odd Bits of Humor

"Been around to Dorfing's house lately?" "No. Is anything stirring?" "Yes. It's stirring beautifully, and he says it will be ready for consumption in about a week."

Myles—Don't you think we'd all be happier if there was no money in this world? Styles—Oh, no; my wife would never be satisfied or happy in any bridge just for hours.

Teacher (at the map)—Timothy Tuffin, what does the shape of Italy remind you of? Pupil (quicker'n a flash)—Headache!

"That lady has dropped her handkerchief. Pick it up." "I hate to do so. It may be her petticoat. Your's safe in picking it up. Ladies don't wear petticoats."

Visitor—You must have been visited by a bad American from the appearance of your building.
Farmer—No; I rented my farm for a month to a movie concern to shoot a five-reel comedy.

First Film Star—Get anything special on today, Cyrus? Second D to—None—only a race against death on a leap for life.

Richmond Asks for Lower Water Rates

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The city of Richmond today joined Oakland and Berkeley in a complaint to the railroad commission asking for a reduction of its charges. Particular objection is made to the surcharge of 10 per cent and what is known as the "ready to serve" charge. It is alleged that the conditions justifying these charges, which were fixed in 1919, no longer exist.

Turlock 'Cot Crop Brings $50 a Ton

TURLOCK, June 24.—The Hume company cannery opened its doors yesterday with a run on apricots, which are bringing $50 a ton, a price much in excess of what growers believed would prevail this year. Manager Shannon says that the market is clearing with bright prospects for the future. The next run will be on peaches followed by tomatoes. It is expected that 40,000 cases of apricots will be put up. A force of 400 women and girls and 150 men will be employed. All the cottages are already full.

Autos Destroyed in Fresno Flames

FRESNO, June 24.—Fire which is thought to have originated in the rear of a paint shop at 631 Broadway last night gutted three buildings owned by Sol Davidson, destroyed 15 motor cars half a dozen tractors, and three new trucks at an estimated loss of seventy-five thousand dollars. The blaze which for a time threatened the United Motor Exchange building at 645 Broadway, was controlled about 9:05, and was limited to the original building.

Law Forces Board to Keep Accused Head of School

R. R. Stuart, principal of Technical Evening High school, was ordered restored to duty today at a special session of the Board of Education, on the ground that, as he was not dismissed by June 10, his tenure of office is automatic and nothing the board could do would change it. District Attorney Ezra Decoto advised the board that it would lay itself open to a damage suit in case Stuart were now dismissed. According to the school law, a teacher must be notified by June 10 that his services are no longer desired. Stuart was notified by Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter and a hearing was held June 7. Stuart fighting the case. The hearing was then deferred to today, but as today is after June 10, and the case was not decided by that date Stuart is legally in office. DELEGATION PRESENT. A large delegation of teachers was present at the session. Attorney Frank M. Carr represented Stuart, who had been charged with laxity in handling school funds, incompetency, insubordination, and failure to co-operate with the school department. Carr expressed dissatisfaction with the result of the case. "I am sorry the case is concluded in its legal aspect rather than on its merits," he said. However, the new tenure act goes into effect in mid-August, and the act allows the picking of charges against educators which will determine the question on its merits. "No matter what evidence we have," said Hunter, "they are not acts committed after the board has re-contracted with Stuart. There is nothing further to be done." EXONERATION MOVE LOST. "I move that Stuart be exonerated," said Director Fred Campbell. "How can we exonerate him when we haven't heard the case?" asked President Floyd Gray. The motion was lost. The scope of the Technical Evening High school was extended from three-fifths time to full time, to allow for Stuart's employment as a regular full-time principal. This was another legal question arising from the Stuart tangle. The evening high schools were curtailed to three nights per week, but, as Stuart's dismissal was defaulted, he has his former status as a full-time principal, a position not enjoyed by the other principals. Because of this the time of the school had to be lengthened to fit the principal's rating, otherwise he would be drawing pay for work not performed. HUNTER'S STATEMENT. In making the original request that the case be dismissed because of the technicality, Superintendent Hunter said: "When this does not change the belief of the Assistant Superintendents and myself as to Mr. Stuart's undesirability as an employee of the Oakland schools, it would give Mr. Stuart every cause to believe he could win a suit for an entire year's salary against the Board of Education if he were now dismissed. The matter is one for the board to decide. The views of Assistant Superintendents Cox and Avery are, as I have stated, that Mr. Stuart's usefulness in the Oakland schools is at an end."

NEAR EAST RACES ARE INDOLENT, SAYS PHYSICIAN

Lack of ambition to develop the culture of their races was given as the reason for the deterioration of Near East countries by Dr. George T. Pomeroy, physician, in his address to members of the Oakland Rotary club at their luncheon at the Hotel Oakland. Dr. Pomeroy spent the past year working with the Near East Relief. Unless the inhabitants of these countries look toward the future and believe good instead of bad of men they will disappear from the earth, he said. Assyrians, Babylonians and ancient Egyptians, Dr. Pomeroy declared. While the people are always appealing to the United States for aid in feeding the thousands of starving inhabitants, none of them seem anxious to work in producing sufficient foods to supply the country, he added. Speaking on the topic, "Impressions of an American Physician in the Near East," Dr. Pomeroy declared that while the majority of the people seemed to live only in the present, the few who were endeavoring to uplift the race were thwarted at every move by the seeming indifference of the indolent ones. "I am asked on every turn what is the future of the Near East countries," Dr. Pomeroy said. "In answer I can only say this: That if the inhabitants of those countries don't assert themselves in the world's affairs and shake themselves out of a drowsy, indifferent attitude that has endured for the past 400 years they will in time disappear from the earth, as did the ancient races of thousands of years ago. Ambition and a motive for doing things is all that those people need."

Members of the club voted to accept the invitation of the Sacramento club to attend the Rotary day celebration during the State Fair on September 8. The annual Rotary club horse race will be a feature of the festivities. In addition, it was decided that each member of the club send a short note of cheer to Ernest Pether, Oakland automobile man, who was seriously injured in an accident June 10 near Downville and who will be confined in a hospital for another eight weeks. Pether is a member of the Oakland Rotary club.

SENATORS PICK
WILLIAMS FOR
U. S. ATTORNEY

John T. Williams of San Francisco will be the United States attorney for the northern district of California, it appeared today. The certainty of Williams' appointment to the office loomed when it was announced that Senators Johnson and Shorridge concluded to join in the recommendation of Williams. The senators have also decided it was declared, upon the recommendation of R. H. McCormick of San Francisco, attorney General, that the formal declarations, which were drawn yesterday, according to word received here, will be forwarded to the attorney General's Daugherty within the next few days. The joint recommendation of both senators for a state in cases of this kind is tantamount to appointment, it is said.
